This week Mike Kier shares an exciting new initiative of the Global Mission Buddhist Study Center.

Three of this year's speakers:

- Mike Kier
- Samuel Wang

Jesus gave His followers His Great Commission. "...All power is given unto Me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations,... Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you..." (see Matt. 28:18-20). The Greek word translated "teach" includes the meaning "disciple". While multiplying disciples is clearly a top priority the Lord has for His church, giant difficulties often seem to block the way of doing this very thing.

In light of Jesus' command and this great challenge, we will hold the first DISCIPLE MULTIPLIERS INITIATIVE (DMI) February 13-March 6. The DMI is our simple faith-response to the call of Jesus to lead out in a transformational movement to go and disciple willing souls, from every people group among Buddhists, into full obedience to Christ.

This coming Sunday evening the Global Mission Buddhist Study Center team enters a new phase of training. 13 pastor/trainers, invited from 6 SE Asian nations, will begin the intensive 3-week, 90+ hour training in disciple-making. The program envisioned puts each participant in direct access to God to be empowered by His Word to rapidly disseminate Christ's last warning message, while setting in motion a multiplying effect of mentoring for others to do the same.

The weight of this responsibility is heavy upon us. What we are attempting is of eternal significance. Please pray with us for nothing less than the multiplying of true disciples--followers of Jesus, who can clearly give God's final message to the world. This must be backed-up by a genuine example of Christ's life-transforming power. Our earnest prayer is that the Holy Spirit will be poured out upon each DMI graduate in full Latter Rain measure for the purpose of glorifying God by building characters that reflect Christ perfectly through the final crisis prophesied to occur just before Jesus' return in triumph (Dan. 12:1).
"In the plan of restoring in men the divine image, it was provided that the Holy Spirit should move upon human minds, and be as the presence of Christ, a molding agency upon human character. Receiving the truth, men become also recipients of the grace of Christ, and devote their sanctified human ability to the work in which Christ was engaged - men become laborers together with God. It is to make men agents for God, that divine truth is brought home to their understanding.

"But I would inquire of the church, Have you answered this purpose? Have you fulfilled the design of God in diffusing the light of divine truth, in scattering abroad the precious jewels of truth?"

The Review and Herald, February 12, 1895