Dear Center for Adventist Research,

If I were you, I wouldn’t want to be lost in Mbalanguzi.

A southern village in the African country of Malawi, Mbalanguzi is drought-prone and desperately poor. So poor in fact, that there’s no electricity. When the sun goes down, it gets awfully dark. Not a good place to be lost!

Truth be told, however, there are thousands of lost people in Mbalanguzi and southern Malawi. These are people who have never heard the gospel truth or seen the light of God’s saving grace. The spiritual darkness in their lives is worse than the Malawian midnight.

Will you help reach the lost of Mbalanguzi?

How different from the world you and I know! It’s hard to imagine living in a place with no electricity, where the sun is the only source of light and everything is pretty much dark once it sets.

But how much worse is spiritual darkness! Instead of no electricity, picture yourself in a place without the gospel truth, where you don’t have a Bible, where you can only guess about spiritual things.

There really is an urgent need to reach the lost in Mbalanguzi!

Jesus Himself said, “The Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.” Luke 19:10, NKJV.

This August, Jackie and I will lead 10 evangelistic teams on a large-scale, multi-faceted outreach to southern Malawi, including Mbalanguzi. We’ll be reaching more than 3,000 people!

Will you follow in Christ’s footsteps? Will you seek out those who are lost and bring them to our heavenly Father?

Your gift today of just $23 will reach one villager for Christ and also provide her with a Bible in the local language.

Thousands in Mbalanguzi and southern Malawi are lost in darkness. Thank you for shining an everlasting light into their lives!

Your partner in seeking out God’s lost children,
P.S. Just imagine the joy in heaven as lost children of God in Mbalanguzi give their hearts to Jesus! Truly heaven will resound with the words from Luke 15:6 NKJV: “Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!” Thank you again for winning precious souls for Christ!

Give Now