Dear Wendy,

Tonight, September 11, 2012.

Please join us as we remember with over 10 musicians and poets, and professional, young New York City talent, the memory of those who lost their lives on the historic night of Sept. 11.

Vocalists, a cellist and gifted musicians and poets, will bring us together for an evening of peace. Join us after the concert, for some food and the sharing of stories.

I am sending you a reminder about a reminder. An event we are calling "A Night of Remembrance."
It will be a Greenwich Village Community gathering in remembrance of the lives, people and events of September 11. It will be a simple, dignified gathering. Two candles will be lit, and songs will be sung, and a prayer for peace.

"A Night of Remembrance" will be held in the West Village, within a few yards of what was once streets filled with police, firemen, doctors, nurses and sirens and many of our friends. If you look South, from West 11th Street, you can see a new tower reaching to the sky. The Tower is a sign of new beginnings, and a remembrance of events that are still a part of our shared history.

Please take a moment to join us as we gather as a community, for "A Night of Remembrance." If you have a memory or person you want to share with others, we invite you to come, to historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church, located at 232 West 11th Street, NYC. Just 1.5 blocks west of Seventh Ave. South.

We will gather in community at 7 p.m. Please join us.

Best regards -

Tony Romeo, Pastor / NYC
