REACH-NYC and Greater New York Conference of Seventh-day Adventists Hosts Interfaith Clergy Prayer Breakfast.

NYC Mayoral Candidate Bill deBlasio attends.

NYC / Greenwich Village / Wednesday, October 30, 2013 -

Hundreds of clergy from all over the New York City area, representing Christian, Islamic, and Jewish faith tradition leaders, came together for a joint Interfaith Clergy Prayer Breakfast sponsored by REACH-NYC and the Greater New York Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.
It was an amazing sight to see so many clergy come together, to eat a good Vegetarian Breakfast in the large community room of Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church, and then go upstairs to the historic sanctuary of this historic New York City landmark church, built in 1881.

Enjoying special music provided by guest singers and musicians, the hundreds of assembled clergy, opened the service with prayers offered by Christian, Islamic and Jewish clergy. The guests to Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church by Tony Romeo, pastor of the church and also by Elder G. Earl Knight, pastor and president of the Greater New York Conference.

Special guest Bill deBlasio who is seeking to become Mayor of The City of New York, joined the gathering, to share some of his thoughts about serving all of New York City, with its vast variety of people that make New York City such a special place.

The Interfaith Clergy Prayer Breakfast, also had a special time of prayer for deBlasio.

The group then returned downstairs where they had breakfast, and then enjoyed special meal supplied fresh by members of the REACH-NYC “Vegetarian Healthy Eating Seminar” team. It was wonderful to see so many faith tradition leaders in one place enjoying and sharing good conversation and making new friends.

The images below were taken by professional photographer, Alex Belisle who was on hand to record this special event. Special thanks to all those who helped to make this event so special.
Romeo, REACH-NYC and Pastor of Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church, welcomes over 250 members of the clergy from all over the New York City area to the Interfaith Prayer Breakfast.

Mayoral Candidate Bill de Blasio addresses faith leaders who attended the Interfaith Prayer Breakfast.
de Blasio expressed his appreciation to all the faith traditions who are adding to the health of each community represented and the vast diversity of those who live in each area of New York City.
A special time of prayer was held for God's leading in whoever becomes the next Mayor of The City of New York, and for the family and current leadership of Mr. deBlasio who is the current Public Advocate of The City of New York.

This Friday evening at Cafe Reach:

"Creativity. Made In The Image of God."

Special guest speaker and graphic artist, typographer and New York City designer, William Bevington.

A thoughtful discussion for young professionals and thinkers or all ages, who want to think out of the box and out of the pew. Join us at 7:00 p.m. this Friday, November 1, 2013.
Donations to REACH-NYC help us in our efforts to reach out to the people of New York City. REACH-NYC is recognized by the IRS as a tax-exempt corporation, and all contributions are fully tax-deductible.*

Contributions can also be made by check payable to: "REACH-NYC" and mailed to: REACH-NYC, P.O. Box 651, North Salem, NY 10560

Thank you for helping the REACH-NYC ministry!

*A receipt will be sent recognizing all contributions for tax purposes.
Spam
Not spam
Forget previous vote