With snow expected this weekend, I hope you can make it out to our special programs that will be sponsored by REACH-NYC, at Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church. Avoid the stress of the holiday season and relax with interesting presentations focusing on God, our relationship to God, and becoming a disciple of Jesus Christ.

Getting involved in ministry to others is the best way to keep your faith journey fresh, and motivated. The holiday season also presents a difficult time for many individuals. Many of our REACH-NYC friends are going through personal loss and medical issues, and please know that you are being remembered in prayer each day.

God is nearest, even when we might feel alone. Be assured of a loving Savior concerned with our every need.
