You Are Invited To "A Classic Christmas" at Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church in The West Village, New York City

The sanctuary of Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church will be filled with some of the greatest sounds of the Christmas Season, on Saturday, December 21, 2013 at 3:30 p.m. Come and enjoy the classic hymns of the church as the Village Singers, join with professional violinists, pianists and singers in the hymns that have inspired the Christian Church for centuries.

The program of inspiring music will be followed by a time of refreshment and testimony in the lower auditorium where you can enjoy good friends and great food of the season.

The morning Worship service begins at 11:30 a.m., with "A Conversation With The Word" offered by Pastor Tony Romeo, with the sermon title "Let's Go To Bethlehem." The Scripture reading will be from Luke 2:8-15. The special worship service that is always to the glory of God, will have music, special presentations, and a time of blessed inspiration for all who attend.

Stay for our free Vegetarian luncheon, that begins at 1:00 p.m., followed by the special musical presentation in the main sanctuary at 3:30 p.m. Invite your friends and neighbors to relax in the 1881 sanctuary of this New York City landmark house of worship.

May God grant you peace and a calm spirit during this special of all seasons.

Join us at Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church, 232 West 11th Street, NYC, just 1.5 blocks West of Seventh Ave. South, in the beautiful West Village of Manhattan.
