Good evening from New York City: Tuesday, January 14, 2014. / 8:00 p.m.
Greenwich Village, NY

Great news...

REACH-NYC is about to re-open a small group meeting, that is a mix of good friends who come together on Saturday afternoon to discuss the issues of the day, with inspiring thoughts from the Bible and other great source material.

The gathering will begin this Saturday, January 18, 2014 at 4:30 p.m. and will meet in a nice intimate chapel and conference space, that has become available once again, that we are renting from a Lutheran Church that runs the Seafarers International House, located at 123 East 15th Street, just east of Union Square Park, on the corner of Irving Place and 15th Street, just east of Third Ave. in New York City.
The chapel is small and has a wonderful pipe organ, and a restful place to meet God and good friends. We envision a place where we can meet and have an open discussion on various subjects that can help bring us closer to a life that is meaningful and based on the love of Jesus Christ. With this in mind, it is important to note, that our meetings are open to all faith traditions, and to all those who may not have any faith tradition or affiliation.

Many have been turned off by a traditional church setting for various reasons, and this space offers a chance to share your thoughts in a safe environment, that is free from the places that should offer love and acceptance, but sometimes carry the wrong message that was alien to the teachings and caring spirit of Jesus Christ.

Have you stopped going to "church?" Then this is the place for you. Are you looking for a place where you can share your journey and unique take on life, with no one judging you? Have you been abused by "religion" and "religious people"? Are you looking for a place to help clarify the unique teachings of Jesus Christ in a way that is fresh and open? We invite you to join us at The Chapel at Union Square.

There will be some good bread and some fresh fruit to munch on, and some absolutely wonderful Words of Life from the Word of God to think about and challenge you in a positive way. The gathering will begin at 4:30 p.m. and end at 6:30 p.m., giving you plenty of time to enjoy the rest of your evening, with some positive thoughts that will lift your spirit.

The Chapel at Union Square is a great place to come if you would rather stay in bed and get a few extra winks on a Saturday morning, recovering from the week you just had in New York City. It is also a place to get some focused inspiration near the end of the day on Saturday afternoon, in a relaxed atmosphere. If you've stopped going to your church on Sunday, this is also a great opportunity to get a jump on the weekend with some inspiring thoughts you may never have thought of.

We look forward to meeting you as we start the New Year in a new way, with some inspired thinking. We hope to see you this Saturday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. at The Chapel at Union Square, 123 East 15th Street, NYC. Look for us as you enter the Seafarers International House in the chapel to the right as you enter the building or in the Mezzanine section in the conference room.

Special Note: On Friday evening, January 17, there is also CAFE REACH at 7:00 p.m. with refreshments and some nice hot drinks. "Reaching Out In Prayer." New 2014 Season at Cafe Reach continues. Join us in the intimate candle lit setting we use at Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church, located at 232 West 11th Street, NYC, just 1.5 blocks West of Seventh Ave. South in beautiful Greenwich Village. Last week we had an outstanding discussion and prayer for our small group and the friends we have who were in need of prayer. This is a great way to start off your weekend.

May God bless you with peace and a calm spirit.

Best regards - Tony Romeo, REACH-NYC
