Dear Wendy,
You are invited to join us for the new Fall Season of stimulating conversation at Cafe Reach, that begins this Friday evening, September 12, 2014 at 7PM. We have a nice space that has been made available to us at the landmark, Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church, 232 West 11th Street, NYC, located just 1.5 blocks West of Seventh Ave. South and one half block East of West 4th Street, in the beautiful West Village.

There is a meet and greet at 7PM and the group discussion begins at 7:30PM. So if you are running late, you will have time to join the dialogue. We are designed for young professionals and thinking individuals of all ages. That's why they let me attend.

REACH-NYC has installed a new state-of-the-art 70" flat panel screen with brilliant audio, that will be helpful in bringing seminars, interesting video's and stimulating discussion starters to our gatherings. We will also be having interesting guest speakers that we will be inviting over the course of the season.

The gatherings are open to all faith traditions or those with no faith traditions at all. As odd as this may sound to you, the atmosphere and discussions are designed designed to be a comfortable setting for those who for one reason or another, never want to step foot in a religious institution again.

If you want to think, be challenged and don't want to settle for a cookie cutter answer to questions, this is the place to come and share, learn and give a point of view as long as it is done in a respectful manner, knowing and realizing that your point of view may not necessarily be the only correct point of view.

The Bible and other stimulating documents are used to help us on our journey to understanding the world in which we find ourselves living today, and in some ways, looking back and learning from the past.

With the networks telling us bad news all the time from Ebola, earthquakes, a variety of religious crazies, government stalemates, and mass hopelessness, we like to focus on simply trying to make sense of it all. We live in a complex time and in a very complex, yet wonderful city, and coming together in a safe place is what Cafe Reach is all about.

Please join us for what will be a great place to unwind and say things you may not be able to say or ask in a pew. Keep in mind, this is an organic place where your thoughts are welcome. There is no pontificating here from someone standing at a pulpit and telling you what to think.

God has created all of us with the ability to have dialogue and I have learned as a pastoral counselor that monologue is neither healthy or the best way to communicate. Bring a friend, but most of all, bring an open mind.

May God bless you today wherever you are with peace and a calm spirit.

Best regards -

Tony Romeo
