December 20, 2014 / New York City

Wendy

It is my pleasure to invite you to an outstanding Christmas Concert, being held on Saturday evening, December 20, 2014 at 6:00 p.m. in the 1881 Landmark Sanctuary of Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church.

A reception to meet the musicians will follow the concert with great food and conversation. This is the event to come to and invite your friends to join you. Outstanding talent from the Greenwich Village community will be performing classic pieces of the season, along with choral works by The Voices of Manhattan Church.

The concert is free and all donations will go towards local community organizations in and around the City of New York. This is one concert you will not want to miss. Enjoy the sounds of the season, in one of the most beautiful sanctuaries in New York City.

Please scroll down to see the official invitation.
May God grant our City and our World peace not only in our hearts but with each other.

Best regards - Tony Romeo
