This past Monday evening, March 23, 2015 the 1881 landmark sanctuary of Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church was filled with the powerful voices of University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Vesper Choir, 55 talented guests that arrived in New York City, ready to bring the Gospel to life through the gift of music.

This coming Thursday evening, March 26, 2015 at 7:30 pm, The Atar Trio Live! The Atar Trio will be performing in New York City in the 1881 Landmark Sanctuary of Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church, 232 West 11th Street, NYC, (just 1.5 blocks West of Seventh Avenue South) as part of their 2015 U.S. Concert tour. This outstanding and gifted trio of musicians comes to us all the way from Jerusalem, Israel and you will not want to miss their incredible performance.

If you missed the performance Monday evening, in what is becoming an amazing month of great performances at Historic Manhattan Seventh-day Adventist Church, you will not want to miss the Atar Trio, consisting of Violin, Cello, and Piano, and playing tremendous music from gifted composers, interpreted by this outstanding trio of musicians from Israel.

Below (Please scroll down) you will find complete information on the concert, and it is my hope that you will make every effort to join us to enjoy fine music while helping reach and support New York City non-profits in their work for those in need in New York City.

$700 was donated on Monday evening, and although Thursday’s concert is also Free, another opportunity to donate will be given at tomorrow evening’s performance. The combined donations will go towards a New York City Public School to help give food, and assistance to the of students in one elementary school where 42% are homeless and living in shelters. That’s right, 42% homeless children in the richest city in the world!

May God continue to bless you with peace. I am looking forward to seeing you tonight. A reception for our performers and guests will follow each concert.
