Dear Wendy,

REACH-NYC Announces the First Meeting of Fall at First Presbyterian 12 West 12th Street, NYC!

Thursday, September 10, 2015
7:00 - 9:00 PM.
Greenwich Village, NYC / Thursday, September 10, 2015 -

I hope you have had an amazing Summer, and as we enter the 2015 Fall Season, REACH-NYC is excited to announce a new venue to meet together, to share ideas in one of the most historic venues in New York City.

We just signed a contract to rent space at First Presbyterian Church, located on Fifth Avenue, between West 11th Street, and West 12th Street, NYC a few steps away from the vibrant neighborhood that is anchored by Washington Square Park, and the campus of New York University.

The backstory of our move to this incredible venue is simply miraculous. We are privileged to be welcomed to use this space. REACH-NYC will be starting informal and relaxed small group meetings at this new location starting next week on Thursday, September 10, 2015 from 7:00 - 9:00 pm. (Please "Share" this information with your friends.)

The venue "First Presbyterian Church in the City of New York", dates back to 1716 when it was originally located on Wall Street. It's current location on Fifth Avenue between West 11th Street and West 12th Street, NYC in one of the most spectacular venues in the West Village. Building this new structure began in 1844 and was dedicated in 1846, an amazing time in the religious revival era of the United States.

We invite you to our Inaugural Gathering on Thursday, September 10, 2015 that will begin at 7:00 - 9:00 pm. The entrance to First Presbyterian Church is located at 12 West 12th Street, NYC just off Fifth Ave. Please check in with the receptionist upon arrival, say you are here to attend the REACH-NYC gathering, and you will be directed to the Library for our first meeting.

We want this to be a safe place to invite people from every faith based tradition and those with understandably, none at all. Any person is invited regardless of ethnic, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, or anyone looking for a place to gather and share some needed love and concepts for personal growth.

The format is simple, relaxed and deals with discussions on the simple yet profound teachings of Jesus Christ, who quoted from the Jewish writings found in the book of Deuteronomy, when he was once asked: "What commandment is the foremost of all?" Jesus answered, "The foremost is, 'Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is one Lord; and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Mark 12:28-31 (NASB)

The gatherings are designed to meet our current social and spiritual needs, with a focus on the complexities of all our lives in a spiritual and compassionate manner. More topics as they arise from the participants or questions one might bring for discussion. It is an inclusive meeting with no regard or expectation of religious affiliation or ethnicity.

If you are a university student new to New York City, a seasoned professional, artist, trades person, filmmaker, musician, crafts person working mom, or simply an inquisitive individual looking for spiritual growth and thoughtful discussion, you will enjoy this gathering.

As mentioned, this venue is just a few steps from Washington Square Park and Memorial Arch in Greenwich Village and the vibrant life of the West Village, where ideas have always been shared and part of intellectual conversation.

Write me at: romeo.anthonyj@gmail.com for more information and details. I would love to know if you are able to join me on Thursday, September 10, 2015 at 7 pm, 12 West 12th Street, NYC, in this new location and venture. If you are in the neighborhood grab a bite at one of the nearby restaurants and then join us for some really nourishing spiritual food in the Library at our first REACH-NYC gathering.

Remember: "God is totally in love with you, no matter who you are. No matter what you've heard." - Tony Romeo

May God continue to bless you this week, and make you a blessing to all those you meet in your journey.
