Do you …

- Want to buy literature to share, but you don’t have the time or ability to hand it out, or

- Want to make a wider variety of free literature available to your church’s visitors but can’t afford it?

Then, the Literature Sharing Program is for you! Some may be purchased singly, while others will be available in quantity only. But the special prices are available to Literature Sharing Program participants only.

Register now …

There are two types of participants under the Literature Sharing Program, and both need to register:

Individuals who make contributions to the local church for this purpose will be able to receive a receipt for income tax purposes. Although a direct purchase from Religious Liberty Publishing Assn. is not tax deductible, a contribution is. Payment for literature purchased under the Literature Sharing Program must accompany the order.

DISTRIBUTORS: Individuals or churches that wish to receive literature without cost to them so they may sell or give it away for free may apply to be distributors. They may also purchase specially-priced publications.
