The book Steps to Christ, Ellen White’s life-changing masterpiece on the essence of Christianity, has been published in more than 150 languages with more than 100 million copies in circulation. Since 1892, it has given inspiration and hope to millions of readers around the world.

And now it's been prepared for today's media-savvy audiences in this professionally produced, spoken-word recording on audio CD and MP3 that breathes fresh life and passion into every page.

In part an evangelistic masterwork that encourages truth seekers to embrace the teachings of Christ and trust in God's plan of salvation, it's also practical, Bible-based counsel that shows how to survive and thrive in a sin-filled world and have more meaningful relationships and ultimate peace in this life.

This precious treasure has given joy to every nation on earth, and it can now lead you step by step to the cross of Christ and forward into His throne room in heaven to encourage, inspire, and bestow on you empowering grace that will help you overcome every obstacle in your walk of faith and give you joy that will last for all eternity.
Mysteries of Daniel and Revelation

Although plainly written for the lay person to understand, this book will also challenge the scholars. This verse-by-verse commentary is written in the classical historicist position of Daniel.

Prophecy’s Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde

Probably no topic has cause more fiery debate among evangelical churches than the relationship between church and state. Pastor Stephen Bohr provides in-depth insight into
