The Fourth of July is a great time for many to remember the freedoms we have as a country. What many people don't realize is that America plays an important part in the final hours of earth's history. You may even know this—but does your neighbor or co-worker? Check out these timely sharing books featured in this week's email. Each book will be a perfect book to share at this time of year when minds are focused on themes of our nation and independence. Always be on the look-out for an opportunity to share!

Is there such a thing as The Illuminati?
Does this fit into our sophisticated age?
Some ridicule the very idea, but in this book a fascinating portrayal is uncovered.
The Illuminati 666 brings together many startling, almost unbelievable facts:
witchcraft, astrology, 666, Freemasonry,
Communism, papacy, Federal Reserve,
UN, universal product code, and more.

Price: $12.95

I Pledge Allegiance provides frank, sensible answers to questions such as:
How should Seventh-day Adventist Christians maintain a proper balance between loyalty to God and their allegiance to their nation? How should our unique prophetic understanding of Revelation 13 shape our stance regarding our role in the military?
