The Gift of Prophecy

We have seen many so-called prophets who have come and gone but have not stood the test of time. To the vast majority this has been most confusing and perplexing.

These pages will not only give you the answers to these perplexing questions, but it will also share with you the biblical tests of determining a true prophet.

As you read this timely book, prepare for an in-depth biblical search for answers to these questions and others. Since this is so vital, especially at this time in our lives, humbly approach the throne of Grace and ask God to give you wisdom through the Lord Jesus Christ. When you finish, you won't have to be confused anymore.

A Fork in the Road
Questions on Doctrine
The Historic Adventist Divide of 1957

As an eyewitness of the drama surrounding the publication Questions on Doctrine (QOD) in 1957, Dr. Douglass shares his personal experience and insights into the history of QOD. Because so much uncertainty enshrouded the outcome of these events, his noteworthy remarks stem from the fact that he was in the midst of the debate. The current chairman of the Ellen G. White Estate concurs with Dr. Douglass’ account because he, too, observed the history as it happened.

Testimonies for
Prophecies of Ellen White

Whether writing about war, segregation, spiritualism, healthful living, or the great controversy, God’s messenger boldly spoke unpopular truths to those who needed to hear them. Today we need to listen once again. Herbert E. Douglass has skillfully compiled an arresting variety of examples of messages that were ridiculed at the time they were spoken but were proved true in retrospect.

This book will rekindle your faith in the Spirit of Prophecy and inspire you to look carefully at those predictions yet to be fulfilled.
