NEW! The Coming Oil Crisis

By Ivor Myers

A crisis is ahead of us. From the fields of politics and science, voices all over the world are warning of a coming oil crisis in which demand will soon exceed supply, bringing chaos to society. But few voices are warning of an even greater crisis coming upon our planet—a spiritual oil crisis. This oil crisis is vividly portrayed in the parable of the ten virgins who went forth to meet the Bridegroom. Five were wise; five were foolish. The foolish did not possess enough oil to keep their lamps lit in the darkness of night in preparation for the coming of the Bridegroom. Similarly, many professed Christians will not have enough of the Holy Spirit to be kept from the deceptions of darkness that will come upon the world just before the second coming of Christ. We are indeed headed for the greatest crisis this world has ever witnessed.

This book takes an in-depth look at the parable of the ten virgins, and shows the reader how to be prepared for the coming time of trouble. It will answer the following questions:

- How can I prepare for the crisis?
- What is the outpouring of the latter rain?
- Does the latter rain occur before or after the time of trouble?
- What is the light that is to lighten the earth with glory?
- What will it take for Christ to return?

The Baptism of the Holy Spirit

The concept of the baptism of the Holy Spirit is that there are two works of the Spirit: one is to lead us to accept Christ and be baptized; the second is to fill us so we can truly live the Christian life and do the works of God. Jesus is our model or example in all things.

The Ministry of the Spirit

To deal properly with the subject of the Holy Spirit, one must necessarily deal with sin. If, as a result, some are helped to a higher Christian experience, to a deeper consecration, and led to receive the “promise of the Spirit through faith” in great fullness, the effort will not have been in vain.

A segment within the Seventh-day Adventist Church is currently campaigning to change our historic position regarding the ordination of pastors—that only consecrated men should be ordained. In addition, this push to begin ordaining women as pastors is being done in disregard to the world church’s clear policy on this issue. This presents a serious crisis that threatens to fragment our beloved church, create confusion in our homes, and cripple the progress of the three angels’ messages. Your voice here today can help prevent this disunion.
