The Noble Character
When Adam came from the Creator’s hand, he bore, in his physical, mental, and spiritual nature, a likeness to his Maker. “God created man in His own image” (Genesis 1:27), and it was His purpose that the longer man lived the more fully he should reveal this image—the more fully reflect the glory of the Creator. Face-to-face, heart-to-heart communion with his Maker was his high privilege. Had he remained loyal to God, all this would have been his forever. Throughout eternal ages he would have continued to gain new treasures of knowledge, to discover fresh springs of happiness, and to obtain clearer and yet clearer conceptions of the wisdom, the power, and the love of God. More and more fully would he have fulfilled the object of his creation, more and more fully have reflected the Creator’s glory. (Education, 15)

Reflection: My highest privilege is communion with my Maker. By communing with Him I will become like Him. Therefore, let us find a time and place to commune with God each day. Let our hearts reach out to God with deep affection. May we learn to enjoy the company of God above the fellowship of men.

The Noble Character
Compiled from The Remnant Study Bible

Noble character? What’s that? How do we get it?
In today’s world those are great questions. We all have one—a character. It is made up of our thoughts, feelings, and choices. This character lets us know—if we honestly ask ourselves—what kind of person we are. Character traits, such as love, faith, loyalty, honesty, integrity, temperament, and even diet, to name a few, build our characters—ours and mine.

In this world of "anything goes," many are forming anything but noble characters. It seems like what was right a few years ago is now either forgotten or deemed unnecessary; yet, without having noble characters, we as individuals will never be what God intended us to be.

In developing this devotional we used the greatest book ever—the Bible. We pulled out the best stories and used the comments from The Remnant Study Bible to give you a book that is more essential now than ever before.

The Naked Truth

The Eternal Difference Your Health Can Make

by H. E. Bisalski

“Good News! Keep that cherished unhealthy lifestyle that is eating away at your health. We have a pill for that.”

“If you’re current lifestyle is causing you to be overweight, we have more good news. Stay on the couch and order another pizza. We will then send you a pill for your weight problem.”

“Due to poor diet and lack of exercise is your blood pressure out of control? Is your cholesterol higher than the national debt? Don’t worry; be happy because we have a pill for that.”

“Pay no attention to dependency or possible life-threatening side effects. We have drugs for that too.”
“Medicate, then eat, drink, and be merry.”

These propositions seem to be the current pharmaceutical and physicians’ philosophy. Sounds like poor concepts, don’t they? Yet, we hear them every day. If we don’t examine the real problem, the results may be more like eat, drink, and be buried. H. E. Bisalski shows us a much better alternative.

Having a healthy lifestyle is the answer to not only reversing current health problems and becoming healthier but also to staying healthier. Live a richer life instead of contributing to the billions of dollars the pharmaceutical companies have already made. Many of our problems can disappear by the simple, common-sense instructions outlined in this book.

d’Sozo . . . comes from the Greek root that the New Testament uses for both spiritual salvation and physical healing. However, as the Lord’s weapon to reverse the worst evil, d’Sozo grows to become an unshakable confidence in God’s provision for every need, which frees His people to practice Jesus’ combined ministry to body, mind, and soul; makes manifest the divine glory of self-renouncing love; refutes the devil’s assertion that self-interest is best; proves that sinners can, through faith in Christ, become obedient to the "law of life" and safe for re-introduction to the universe of the unfallen. History, inspiration, and prophecy combine to paint a picture of the end like you’ve never seen before. God’s plan is doable, and you can be a part of it!
