Then do the work and be blessed (see James 1:25).

Once you walk the pathways of the pioneers, you will have no doubt that God leads His people. The pathways on this collection of CDs belong to the faithful men and women who devoted their lives to spreading the gospel and establishing the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
Including more than 100 amazing stories, this series begins with God’s call to William Miller and concludes with the death of E. G. White. These audio accounts of faith and journey bring to life all the wonderful and difficult years of those who faithfully served our Lord.

The Pilgrim's Progress Audio Book

Text by John Bunyan

This classic story of Christian’s journey from the City of Destruction to the Celestial City comes alive in this epic audio dramatization. Accompany this pilgrim on his diverse adventures as he passes through the Slough of Despond and escapes from prison in his quest to find the Celestial City. He also encounters lions, the Shining Ones, Worldly Wiseman, Mr. Legality, Evangelist, Patience, and a multiple cast of other attention-grabbing characters along the way. Travel with Christian as he discovers forgiveness, loses his burden, dons the armor of God, and confronts dangers within and without.

Oh Love That Will Not Let Me Go - Alessandra (Music CD)

At the tender age of 14, Alessandra sings hymn classics with full orchestration. In Alessandra's own words: “Hymns are poetry in song that come deep from the heart of its authors. In great trials, tribulations, and victories is how God has inspired them to write and share with us a piece of their history and experiences; those things with which we can relate. May this CD bring you comfort, may it uplift you and bring you closer to a loving Father who longs to make of your life a song of praise.”
