HIS WORD REVIVES

CHRIST’S RESURRECTION BROUGHT LIFE: Now was fulfilled the prophecy He had spoken to the priests and rulers, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.” John 10:17, 18; 2:19. Over the rent sepulcher of Joseph, Christ had proclaimed in triumph, “I am the resurrection, and the life.” These words could be spoken only by the Deity. All created beings live by the will and dependent recipients of highest seraph to the all are replenished from divinity, Christ possessed bonds of death. . . . As from the grave a earthquake at His death and when He arose, they were those who had been who at the cost of their to the truth. Now they were to be witnesses for Him who had raised them from the dead.

CHRIST’S RESURRECTION BROKE FORTH THE GRAVES: But those who came forth from the grave at Christ’s resurrection were raised to everlasting life. They ascended with Him as trophies of His victory over death and the grave. . . . To the believer, Christ is the resurrection and the life. In our Saviour the life that was lost through sin is restored; for He has life in Himself to quicken whom He will. He is invested with the right to give immortality.... To the believer, death is but a small matter. Christ speaks of it as if it were of little moment. (A Call to Stand Apart, p. 44.; http://www.jesus-story.net/painting_resurrection.htm)
