Trumpet After Trumpet • Erwin R. Gane

Will Revelation’s seven trumpets sound again? In this careful study, Dr. Erwin Gane makes a case for a dual interpretation of the trumpets—the traditional historical application, as well as an end-time scenario. Your heart will be instilled with a desire to earnestly seek the Lord in preparation for the challenging events about to burst upon our world.

The Indomitable
Gertrude Green
Max W. Hammonds
Gertrude loved China and was fearless in her work—nursing, teaching, and caring. She served through two wars, leading to safety for refugees fleeing on foot from the Communist army. This is her compelling story—suspenseful, incredible, miraculous!

The Blessing of Adversity
Barry C. Black
A motivational tone pervades this guide to preparing for life’s challenges by embracing the possibility that good work may be accomplished through faithful navigation of life’s storms. You’ll find a path to peace in the midst of tough times and the hope to survive life’s brokenness.

America the Beautiful
Ben Carson with Candy Carson
Ben Carson helps us rediscover what made this nation great and helps us learn from our past in order to chart a better course for our future. He challenges us to use our God-given talents to improve our lives, our communities, our nation, and our world.

I’m Not Leaving • Carl Wilkens
Carl Wilkens was the only American to remain in the country through the 1994 genocide in Rwanda. His insights are simply profound, cutting right to the essence of humanity and faith. He tells his riveting story in a way that will positively stir your soul.

Any Way Out • Ann Vitorovich
Their plan was to escape separately. But would identical twin brothers, Voja and Cveja, survive their attempts to flee Communist Yugoslavia? Would their faith be strong enough to weather the ordeal?

The Seventh-day Ox • Bradley Booth
Beaten down by the Communist forces of Russia, Christian pastor Nickolai Panchuk found himself in a Siberian prison camp. God used Nickolai, and an old ox, to perform a miracle, and led even the hardest hearts to Him along the way. These amazing true stories of faithfulness will strengthen your trust in our God.

The Race • Della Loredo
Christian will inherit a vast fortune if he can complete a 6,000-mile race. But someone sinister has set out to destroy him. Unsure of whom he can trust, Christian questions whether his benefactor is behind the devious plots. Will Christian survive to finish the race or will he be exterminated? You’ll be drawn into this modern-day allegory and get a fresh point of view on the great controversy.

My Incredible Journey With Roger • Hilda Morneau
The widow of prayer-warrior and author Roger Morneau shares stories of their unlikely spiritual journey, God’s unexpected provisions, and a lifetime of incredible answered prayers.

The No-good Preacher
Charles White
Charles had never been good enough—not for anyone. But God had plans for Charles that went far beyond his wildest dreams and demonstrates that with God all things are possible. A true story of faith, hope, and endless possibilities!

Second Chance • Jim Ayer
Jim Ayer left his hippie lifestyle to come to God, and then drifted away from Him even though he still attended church. Second chances are incredible gifts, but the adversary didn’t give up. Thankfully, neither did God.

The Indomitable Gertrude Green
Max W. Hammonds
Gertrude loved China and was fearless in her work—nursing, teaching, and caring. She served through two wars, leading to safety for refugees fleeing on foot from the Communist army. This is her compelling story—suspenseful, incredible, miraculous!

GUIDE’S GREATEST TRUE STORIES

Guide’s Greatest Hero Stories
Lori Peckham, editor
You can be a hero! Whether you’re fearless or fearful, rich or poor, scrawny or brawny, popular or picked on. These are exciting true stories of boys and girls, just like you, who stepped up to do the job when a hero was needed. You’ll see that they all made the simple choice to put others first. You can do the same, and then you can be a hero, too!
