Councillors Meet for Third Annual

The Loma Linda University Board of Directors met Wednesday, May 25, D.C., for its third annual meeting in conjunction with the General Conference Fall Council meetings that began Tuesday and will end Monday, next week.

The 23-member board, according to Jerry L. Pettis, vice president for public relations and development, will meet with President Godfrey T. Anderson as an advisory group.

The membership of the board has been reconstituted among members in business and the professions throughout North America. Mr. Pettis, who is an ex officio member, and the executive officers of the University alumni, according to Pettis, is less than 10 percent of the membership.

The Councillors are: Jon R. Kuykendall, industrialist and rancher from Bakersfield, Calif.; Harold S. Campbell, contractor and real estate executive from Baltimore, Md.; Daniel L. Cooper, DDS, of Corpus Christi, Texas; and Donald T. Freeman, DDS, of San Francisco, Calif.

SABBATH SCHOOL'S COLLEGIATE class meets at Kate Lindsey Hall. The handsome living rooms in the girls' dormitory are filled to capacity and some of the students line the hall in an attempt to listen and learn from the Word of God. The Loma Linda Church on the Hill and the University Chapel have now launched a campaign to have more educational facilities built near the church. This will do away with a situation as reported through SCOPE's picture story in which classes from one church meet a mile apart.

A Significant Observation

When scientific inquiry runs ahead of spiritual growth, even superior minds lose their strength and balance. Loma Linda University, therefore, maintains sustained interest in the religious life of its people. The work of the University church must be devoted to academic matters. Minds disciplined in classroom and laboratory perform well in church and Sabbath school and enrich the lives of all.

In a school, classrooms and equipment provide suitable environment for the pursuit of scientific knowledge. Teachers would find their task next to impossible without these facilities. Many churches also to church and Sabbath school, leading us to a significant observation. Loma Linda's congregation are outgoing heavenward, and the University Church and the Church on the Hill are holding double services on Sabbath mornings and both churches suffer from inadequate Sabbath school space. That is why a Church Development Program is being organized with hundreds of volunteers from both congregations joining forces in simultaneous building efforts.

It is timely and right that church development keeps pace with the University's plans for expansion.

New president of the National Association of Seventh-day Adventist Churches, Rev. Thomas Davis (Dr.) of Philadelphia, Pa., presented the gavel to Dr. Glenn Curtis, retiring president of NADAD. The election preceded the NADAD national convention last week in Atlantic City, N.J.

Plans for WMH

White Memorial Hospital and Clinic has been operated by the University as a teaching facility for its educational programs in the health sciences. In an average year 12,000 patients are admitted for care, about 2500 babies are born and 131,000 out patients receive medical attention in the clinics. The first patient was admitted to the hospital in January 1918.

The proposed transfer would involve solely assigning operation of the hospital and clinics to another agency of the same church organization. Dr. Andrew explains, and would not in any way disrupt its health services to the public.

The meetings of the Fall Council are in Washington, D.C., this week.

Councillors Meet

Don E. Loveridge, contractor from Dallas, Texas, rancher.

Fred J. Lorenz, Fresno, Calif., manufacturer.

Fred Sherman, DOS, Lansing, Mich.

Harold W. Tanku, contractor and real estate developer of Los Alton, Calif.

James C. Trout, bakery owner, Silver Spring, Md.

Gray G. Welsh, bakery executive, Winston-Salem, N.C.

Churches, Academies Need

For pastor, assistant pastor, minister of youth, chair of the academy, and church administrative, redecorating of the main sanctuary; provision of additional rest rooms, a Pathfinder room and other improvements such as increased exterior lighting, renovating of the baptismal and recreation of church floors. Coordinating the building programs are M. C. (Get) Cottrell of the Pacific Union Conference church development service at the University Church and St. Louis Loomis from the service for pastor, assistant pastor, chair of the academy, and church administrative. The pastors stated that there is no plan to enlarge either the University Church or the Hill Church.

Both churches presently accommodate their congregation by conducting double Sunday school services each. The University Church membership hals 2,150 persons and the Hill Church records show 1,750 members.

SOLOPHOMORE STUDENTS RECEIVE CAPS SUNDAY

Sunday’s capping ceremony at the Loma Linda University, a senior nurse student, was held under the direction of Dean Maxine Atteberry (right) and Assistant Dean Eldridge, SN©59, an administrator from the Okinawa Seventh-day School for a master’s degree in nursing education. Seen in the beginning of three years of study for the Loma Linda University School of Nursing, reached a climax when their new caps took the Florence Nightingale pledge under the direction of the University School of Nursing.

Eldridge, SN©59B, who spoke at Adventists medical center, told her students to communicate effectively to make mankind remember that you are doing something for the good of people. He said, “In all your work remember that you are bound up with Christ... The love of Christ, in a healing, life-giving current, is to flow through your life. As you see to draw strength out of him, let the purity of your language, the meaningfulness of your work, bear witness to the power of his grace. Give to the world as pure and righteous a representation of him that men shall behold him in his beauty.”

The invocation was given by Murleen Marie Hoffman, Ann Marie Purdy, and Murleen Marie Hoffman, Ann Marie Purdy, cheryl Lea Rhodes, and Ann Marie Purdy, chairman of the Student Nurse’s Committee for that college.

The expositing of their capping ceremony was given by the art instructor of the University School of Nursing. The exhibition will be in the Library through October.

LA Campus Set for Fall Frolic
With Foods from Many Countries

The girls of lda Thomas Hall, Los Angeles, have plans in high gear for the annual benefit Fall Frolic, the Trib Club president, Marjean Horning said this week. The Fall Frolic began Tuesday, October 2, at 5 p.m., with home-made foods from various countries served from festive booths.

A fashion show and variety program will follow with presentations at 5:45 and 6:30 p.m. Girls from the dormitory will be featured as models, Dorothy Dick, vice club president, stated. The variety program will also feature folk singers.

Friday, October 25, the girls will wash cars from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sharon Miller, who is in charge of the car wash program, urged that automobile drivers call extension 276 or 277 for information.

The Fall Frolic is open to the public.

Dean Atteberry
Notes All-High Board Returns

Dean Madiee Atteberry of the University School of Nursing, said this week that recent returns of the State Board Licensing Examination of California are most gratifying.

The dean said that two previous records were broken. The Class of 1963 made the highest average score, 610, that has been made by any class from the School of Nursing to date. The second highest record was made by the Class of 1965 with an average of 602.

Minimum passing score in California is 550, according to the dean, who added that the highest individual average was over reached by a School of Nursing graduate who was made by a member of this class, Mrs. Eldred Horst, with her average of 750, exceeded by several points the previous high of 746 in 1961.

"There were no failures, but there rarely are from the graduation class of this school," twenty, or two-thirds of the class, earned an average score of 500, which no far as we know, is another high," Dean Atteberry commented.

She said it will probably be several months before it can be known how the graduates of this school compare with those who have taken the same board examination.

Vaccinations Available for LLU Workers

Loma Linda University employees may receive free influenza vaccinations from October 21 to November 21 at the Clinical Laboratory Injection room.

Vaccinations will be given Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Two are being offered, one which will protect against influenza and adenovirus, and the other which will protect against influenza only. One injection is necessary for those who are on a continuing program.

As a medical center and a community endeavor, the White Memorial Clinic maintains 50 separate and distinct specialties of a highly specialized nature, with nearly 150 physicians and surgeons, serving a voluntary staff who donate unselfishly of their time and talents, in the interests of medical care, education and science. --felt Memorial

During a recent meeting, the dental hygienics elected class officers recently.

Chosen to serve the junior class were Sharon Jacobson, president; Jaime Mendenhall, vice-president; Glenda Beltz, secretary-treasurer; Jeannie Mullis, past-president, Debit Hech, social chair, Judy Johnson, contact and Mrs. Newport Beach, CA.

Senior class is choosing the following: Barbara Bates, president; Sherry Primo, vice-president; Elizabeth Smith, secretary-treasurer; Karen Johnson, social affairs and Miss Jeanne Millikan as advisor.

LLU Therapist Receives Special Award

A workshop in the field of speech of UCI has been awarded to Norma K. Bork by the neurological and sensory rehabilitation division of the United States Public Health Service.

It was awarded to 68 therapists in the United States on the basis of outstanding scholarship, need for personnel in the field and the use which would be made of the training.

Mrs. Bork, wife of Paul F. Bork, instructor and public relations director at Loma Linda University, received a master's degree from Los Angeles State College. She has been an instructor in speech at Andrews University, She has also been a public relations consultant for the school systems in Bermuda, Canada, to Louis Borno and Prince George's county, Maryland.

The fellowship will allow her to work on a doctorate program, which she expects to complete within three years.

Home With Parents After Eye Injury

Pastor Walter Mattison, son of Pastor and Mrs. Mattison, is recuperating in Loma Linda from an eye injury.

Pastor Mattison and his family are visiting in the home of Mrs. W. Moore, 16600 Hillcrest, his eye was punctured by glass from her car window, and he has no sight in it.

The family just completed their third mission term in India when they arrived at Memorial Hospital of the North India mission. Mrs. Mattison was principal of a grade school in Udaipur, India, where she also taught. Prior to their call to India, the Mattisons resided in Barstow, Victorville and Newport Beach, California.

Three of their four children, Karen, Paul and Marla, are attending the elementary school. The youngest one, Steven, is attending nursery school in Loma Linda.

"We expect to return to India in June or July, 1964, when our furlough is over. My husband will be ministerial secretary and evangelist for the South Asia division," says Mrs. Mattison.

In the meantime Pastor Mattison is attending session at La Sierra College.
