Greetings!

I'm sure that most of you are familiar with the story of Moses and the burning bush in Exodus 3. Since childhood, this has been my favorite story, but probably not for the reasons that you might think. It wasn't because of the miraculous way in which the bush caught fire without being consumed. It wasn't because of the rod that Moses held in his hand that was turned into a serpent and back into a rod again. It was because God called Moses to be His spokesperson despite the fact that he had a speech impediment.

SLIGO ADVENTIST SCHOOL NEWS

He could use mightily in His hand.

Has God called you to serve Him lately? Is there something in your life that you believe God is calling you to do? Maybe you haven't been called to free your people from bondage, but do you think God has called you to a task that you feel completely unprepared to handle? Remember that when God calls us to serve Him, He is already aware of the deficiencies in our lives, but is willing to use us anyway.

The next time God calls you to serve Him, remember the words of the apostle Paul in 2 Corinthians 2:12: “Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ’s sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong.”

Senior Pastor

Washington Adventist University Baccalaureate
This Sabbath, we celebrate the accomplishments of the students on our campus, during Washington Adventist Universities’ graduation weekend. Their dedication and hard work has not gone unnoticed and we pray for them as God leads them in the next step of their lives.

Mark Finley, Assistant to the President for the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, and former host of the nationally-syndicated radio program The Voice of Prophecy, shares the message "Hallmarks of Excellence."

We hope you can join us this exciting weekend. It will be a high Sabbath as both the Columbia Collegiate Chorale and New England Youth Ensemble of WAU lead us in worship through music.
An Evening with Jaime Jorge

Make plans now to be at Sligo Church on May 7 at 7pm to hear the truly inspirational music of world-renowned violinist, Jaime Jorge in concert.

Jaime was born in communist Cuba and began playing the violin at the age of 5. He had several opportunities to study abroad, including Moscow with some of the greatest musicians of our time--but only if his family would renounce their faith in God. They refused.

By the time he was 10, they miraculously had the chance to leave the country and chose to come to the U.S. where he received a Christian education and violin lessons with eminent violinist Cyrus Forough. But, what Jaime really wanted to do was to be a missionary doctor, and in 1994 was accepted into the University of Illinois School of Medicine. However, 2 years later, he left medical school and a promising medical career to devote himself full-time to music ministry.

Since, he has traveled all over the globe sharing God's love through music and has recorded 16 albums.

We welcome Jaime to our church and we hope you can plan to be there, too!

National Day of Prayer Service
Thursday, May 5 is the National Day of Prayer, as our nation unites in prayer for our country, leaders and families. We invite you to join us for a special evening from 7-8pm with Cynthia Bezek, Senior Editor of NavPress and The Navigators, as she shares a message to help you grow your relationships in Christ.

The program takes place in the church sanctuary. We hope you can join us and invite a friend to come, too!

We hope you found this week's e-weekend newsletter helpful. If there is anything else you would like to see included, we appreciate your feedback. Just email us to sligo@sligochurch.org.
