Hello SONscreen Film Festival Community:

In just a few short days, we will see each other in Simi Valley, Calif., at the 2013 SONscreen Film Festival.

Here are a few items we wanted to make you aware of:

1. Congratulations to the filmmakers whose films were selected to be screened at the Festival. Click here for the screening schedule.
2. Congratulations to the following people who were chosen to participate in the Pitch Fest on Thursday: Stephen Lutes, Jason Park, Robert Wells II, Rajeev Sigamoney, Erin Hotchkiss, Russell Sails, Cynthia Tolbert, and Dennis Hill.
3. Check out the schedule. We've tweaked it a few since you've last viewed it.
4. Make sure you have a QR Code Reader on your smart phone. You will need it this year to read about the presenters and their presentations because we will not be printing Festival booklets. We are doing this in an effort of becoming more “green.”
5. Have you registered for the convention through AdventSource? If you haven’t, please do so by tomorrow morning. Do this before then will allow us to have your name printed on the cool name badge that we are passing out this year.
6. Have you booked your room? Many of you have not (I know this because I just got the rooming list from the hotel). Call the Best Western at (805) 584-6300. I also just found out that they are now offering us a reduced rate of $64/night. Ask for the SONscreen Film Festival rate.

That's all for now. See you next week!
