Phil Jaklich: Nursing major and, of course, artist extraordinaire

"I didn't take ceramics for general education credit. No, I took it because man cannot live by surgical nursing alone."

If people were one-dimensional creatures, then we'd settle for cookie-cutter academics. But they're not, so we offer more. That radical notion is what some call "liberal arts." You see, just because you're working toward a degree in biochemistry or marketing or psychology—or a degree in nursing like Phil Jaklich—doesn't mean you can't be an award-winning artist, too. In today's world, college must be a whole life experience. And at PUC, there's no time like now.

No time like now.
