The Abiding Sabbath
by Alonzo Trevier Jones

The Biblical Institute
by James Springer White and Uriah Smith
In 1883-1885, prizes were offered for the best essay adapted to counteract “the numerous and powerful influences constantly active in drawing professed Christians into fatal conformity with the world, both in spirit and practice.” The theme of the essay was “The Perpetual Obligation of the Lord’s Day.” The winning essay, titled The Abiding Sabbath, was written by Reverend George Elliot.

Another essay, titled The Lord’s Day; Its Universal and Perpetual Obligation, was awarded to Professor A. E. Waffle of Pennsylvania.

These two authoritative discussions of the question as to why Sunday should be kept as the “true Sabbath” are strongly refuted in this book by Adventist pioneer Alonzo T. Jones.

In 1877, Elders James White and Uriah Smith gave a series of lectures on the principle doctrines of what Seventh-day Adventists teach and believe. These lectures were published the following year.

This facsimile edition of these lectures offers a rare glimpse into the historic beliefs of the early pioneers. A thorough study of these all-important themes will help all who desire to acquaint themselves with a better understanding of what early Adventists taught and believed.

Healthful Living was originally published by the Medical Missionary Board, Battle Creek, Michigan, under the title Instruction Relating to the Principles of Healthful Living. It was so popular when it first came out that it became necessary to print a second and third edition the first year.

We have reproduced the 1898 third edition which also contained two additional chapters, "God in Nature" and "The Spirit Filled Life." In the third edition an appendix of parallel Scripture references was included. This Scripture referenced appendix will be found exceedingly helpful in making clear to the mind of the reader the fact that the principles presented in this work are not mere human inventions; but are a part of the divine order appointed for the human family at the beginning, and which is to be restored when all things are made new.
