January 2015

Happy New Year! This month we wanted to give you an added bonus. Below you will find new titles and bonus information about the authors. A complete description of the book and author information is included below. Simply click on the book to view all book forms or to view our entire collection, visit

TEACH Services’ web site

To start the year off right, TEACH Book Club members will receive 30% off their total purchase.

January Member Discount:

Receive 30% off your order by using code JDL4M239 at checkout. Offer expires 01/19/15

Start Shopping

Personal & Spiritual Growth

Strengthen your walk with Christ. Click on the book below for more information.
Secrets and Mysteries of the Lost Ark walks you through a study of the ark of the covenant and the sanctuary, two important components of our Christian faith. Designed for individual use or as a group Bible study or church seminar, the twelve lessons in this study guide will prompt you to dive into the Word of God and uncover the truths that Jesus has placed within its pages.

Paperback: $17.95 ($15.95)

"Secrets and Mysteries of the Lost Ark is excellent for new church members and serves as a wake-up call for those who may have neglected the message that God has given to His last day church."

~ Richard W. O'Ffill, revivalist and author

James R. Hoffer retired in 2005 after serving as a Seventh-day Adventist pastor for forty-one years. During his career, he pastored churches in Ohio, Michigan, and Maryland, in addition to serving as a missionary in Uruguay and Brazil. As a result of his service overseas, Hoffer is fluent in Spanish and Portuguese. He is also fairly proficient in German and Italian. In addition to this book, he's written numerous articles and poetry, which have been published in several periodicals over the years.

Love Me Till I Die is written from the perspective of someone who is dying. Penned by Daniel Schramm, a hospice chaplain with years of experience working with those who are dying and their families, this short work provides valuable advice for family members, friends, caregivers, and health care workers as to the desires of someone who is dying. Our greatest longing is to love and be loved, especially at the end of life. This book gives voice to this yearning.

Paperback: $9.95 ($7.95)

Addisonal Collections:
Adventist Legacy Series
Biblical Studies
Biographies & Stories
Children's Books
"Having been a nurse, I felt prepared to care for my dying mother. I eventually brought in Hospice to assist me in my mother’s care. However, nothing prepares you for the emotional roller coaster. This book is packed with encouragement, suggestions, and hope. It gives you insight into how the dying person is feeling, what their needs are, and ideas about how to meet those needs. It reminds you that above all, love the person who is dying. Get your copy today and buy an extra to give away because you will certainly want to share it to help someone else in need.”

~ SKH, online reviewer

Daniel Schramm holds a bachelor’s degree in religion and a master’s degree in theology from Andrews University. He also holds a doctorate in pastoral care and counseling from United Theological Seminary. During his career, he has served as a pastor, professor, and hospital chaplain. In his current position as a hospice chaplain, he assists people with the life transitions associated with death and trauma. He helps people find peace in their final days. “The amazing individuals I have known in their final days inspire me in my work.” he said.

TEACH Gift Certificates

Trouble deciding which title to give? Give a gift certificate and know the book chosen will be just what they need.

Written a book?

For a free manuscript review please call 800-367-1844 x3 or submit online at:

TEACHServices.com