See what's going on around the Texico Conference.
One of the greatest privileges we have as Christians is to tell others about Jesus and the hope of a better life. I have heard it said that people aren't interested in the Bible anymore or that evangelism just doesn't work. God has proved these statements to be myths over and over again. On the contrary, I believe God is pulling out all the stops to reach His children before He comes in the clouds to take us home very soon.

Spiritual Brother Paco Arguello congratulates new church member Denny Roybal on his baptism.

A new tradition at the Rabbit Road church in Santa Fe is aimed at nurturing new members and integrating them fully into the life of the church. It’s called the “Spiritual Sister, Spiritual Brother” program. “Since the program’s inception two years ago, we have found new members settle quickly into the life of the church and commit to Christian fellowship. They immediately feel part of the family and are more likely to participate in church activities on a regular basis,” says Head Elder Allen Steele.

Revive and Reach: Española 2014

Following the Week of Revival, Rafaelita O. Gurule committed her life to Jesus and was baptized by Pastor Ruben Rodriguez on Sabbath afternoon, September 27th.

On January 10, 2014, Pastor Jose Rojas made a special visit to the Española Valley Bilingual church to prepare members for a “cosecha” (harvest) that would lead up to evangelistic meetings in May. During his visit he advised and encouraged members on how to sow for a successful harvest. Later that month, Pastor Ruben Rodriguez held training sessions on how to have successful Bible studies, and by February, members began studying with family, friends and acquaintances.

Corrales Church Enjoys Worship in the Mountains and many visitors are attending. They will conclude on November 1st.

Pastor Ken Davis shares the good news that three people joined the Lovington (NM) church recently by profession of faith and there was one baptism in Roswell (NM) a couple Sabbaths ago.

At least 114 visitors were in attendance at the opening of the "Apocalypse of Hope" meetings at the Lubbock Seventh-day Adventist Church with speaker Richard Halversen!

Pastor David McLauchlan sharing the message to the gathered group in the Jemez Mountains.

Twice a year, at the beginning and at the end of summer, the Corrales (NM) Church has “Church in the Mountains” at the Jemez Falls National Recreation Area. Some members spend one or two nights camping at the campsite so they can experience nature at its best and others make the hour trek to Jemez Falls for worship and fellowship during the Sabbath day.

A Wonderful Experience: NAD Women’s Ministry Convention
Texico Youth Director, Pastor Michael Razon has accepted the assignment as pastor of the Rio Rancho Church. He will also continue his responsibility of leading the youth.

Pastor Javier Grijalva accepted the request to be the pastor of the El Paso Montana/Montana Vista/West and Clint Spanish district beginning November 16th. He is currently the pastor for the Amarillo/Clovis/Hereford and Tucumcari Spanish district.

Sitting in a chair on Thursday night at the North American Division (NAD) Women’s Convention in Orlando, Florida, I listened intently as the "God in Shoes" outreach event for Friday was explained. My traveling companion, Maxine McCullin, and I had no idea what this event would entail but we volunteered for the “Clean the World” project.
