Updates and Reminders

Free Shuttle September 25! Your AUSA is providing a bus to Wal-Mart and Target this Sunday afternoon, leaving the PMC parking lot at 2 and returning at about 5 pm. No cost, no gas, no driving. Yeah! (Why on the 25th? Maybe ‘cause there’s only 3 more shopping months to Christmas? ha, ha)

Damazo Hall Open House and Dedication, this October 1 at 3 pm. Ladies, the more of you who open your rooms/apartments, the more fun it will be for the Damazo family and our other guests.

Burman Hall Anniversary celebrates 30 years! Not to be left out, guys, this November marks the 30th year since Burman Hall was built, the newest residence hall on campus till Damazo. We’ll be celebrating that too!

Like Our Shiny Lobby Floor? What a huge job, but it’s coming along great. Thank a custodian :) We’re trying to update things for you. Also to come, new carpeting for the lobby area, and some artwork. Which again reminds me to ask you… Got Art? Do you have original art you’d like to display for Alumni Weekend? Check with Dean Iwasa or Valerie for more info!

October Blood Drive Monday, October 31 and Tuesday, November 1, at PMC. The hours are Monday: 11:15 a.m. - 5:15 p.m. Tuesday: 3 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Share some blood, save a life.

Damazo First Floor Conference Room: Sorry, folks, this Damazo Hall room is for women and staff use only, except with permission from the Dean.

Mailroom Updates A number of you have mailboxes containing several letters. Others have bills and statements you might want to see but probably should. Sigh. And some even have little prizes from last week. Please check your box today and often.

Preparation for Sabbath We realize that not everyone who lives here is an Adventist, and that even those who are will come from different homes and processes. But when you share a room in an SDA residence hall, it is assumed that you’ll tidy up your living space specially for each Sabbath. You need to clean anyway. Why not make a point of doing so before your day of worship. You may find that it lends a bit of calm to your day: it’s hard to feel at peace in an environment that is anything but.

Have a Wonderful & Blessed Weekend! Be kind this weekend to someone who looks lonely.
