Dear Friend,

If reading the Bible from Genesis to Revelation is one of your goals this year, you’re certainly not alone. Many people make that a New Year’s resolution, but lose their resolve somewhere amidst the curtains, lavers, and ephods of Exodus.

I’ll be the first to admit that there are parts of the Bible that are easier to read than others, but I’ll also testify that there is good, interesting, uplifting reading in every part of God’s Word. And that’s why I’m so excited about our current series on the weekend edition of Voice of Prophecy.

Maybe you’ve already gotten to hear one or two of our weekend radio programs this year. If so, you know that over the course of 2012’s 53 weekends we’re going to journey clear through the Bible. We’ll take time to focus on all 66 books, which means that we’ll have to double up a few times. But if you’ll journey with us, and read the biblical books we’re studying each week, you’ll get through the Bible before December 31.

Wouldn’t that give you a great sense of accomplishment? One thing’s for sure. It will give you a new appreciation for God’s Word!

I hope you’ll join us each week for our broadcasts, but even more than that I hope you’ll take the Bible-reading challenge this year.

Many people are predicting catastrophes or even the end of the world in 2012, based on an ancient Mayan calendar. But if you’ll take the Bible-reading challenge, you just may look back on 2012 as the best year of your life!

While I don’t think the Mayas had any special insights into when the world as we know it will end, I do know that we have a Savior in heaven who is waiting with eager longing to wrap things up on Planet Earth, return, and take us home! By reading the Bible with us, you’ll have the chance to revisit all the great prophecies of His return.

As you listen to our programs, you’ll hear us suggest books from time to time that can make Bible study more meaningful. We have one for you right now that’s designed to help you see the Bible with fresh eyes. It’s called Wake Up Your Bible Study!

The author, Richard Coffen, suggests new ways of study that can open new vistas of understanding. After you’ve read a few chapters of Wake Up Your Bible Study, I think you’ll agree that looking at things from different angles can help you see the Bible in a whole new, positive light.

I hope you’ll join us in our journey through the Bible, and that you’ll find this book a blessing. When you send a donation of $25 or more this month, we will send a copy of Wake Up Your Bible Study as our thank-you gift, and as a reminder to join us as we study our way through the Bible this year on our radio program.
Each week on the radio (or your computer or smart phone) you can hear interviews with people whose life experiences relate to the biblical book or books we’re studying that week, and we’ll also share a carefully-thought-out sermon that summarizes the contents and message of that part of the Bible.

If you missed the first couple of weeks of our journey through the Bible, remember you can always go to our website VOP.com and listen to past programs. I think you’ll find them to be a real blessing and help as you read.

Take the challenge, won’t you? Join us in reading all the way through the Bible in 2012. Voice of Prophecy’s theme this year is “Discover Your Bible!” We encourage people to discover their Bibles in many ways, including through the Discover Bible School.

Please join us on our journey of discovery this year as we uncover secrets and prophecies throughout the Bible. And for additional, unique perspectives on this great book, take a careful look at the book Wake Up Your Bible Study. Your donation of $25 or more is essential to our Bible-centered outreach. The book is our way of thanking you for remembering us this month, as well as encouraging you to dig a little deeper in God’s Word this year.

Thank you so much for everything you do to help and bless this ministry. May you sense God’s blessings pouring down on you as you study His Word with us.

Yours in the name of the Savior,

Fred Kinsey
Speaker/Director

P.S. Your journey through the Bible will be enhanced by the book Wake Up Your Bible Study.
