Happy Sabbath,

Weimar is a swinging pendulum. One week the campus is overflowing with activity and the next, it’s almost relaxing. Almost being the key word. Both AFCOE and the academy are off campus for the week, making for much quieter meal times. However, vespers will be webcast tonight compliments of your favorite media crew. Weimar Media:)

Weimar Webcasts
This evening vespers will begin at 7pm PDT.
The speaker of the hour will be Dr. John Baldwin.
He’s visiting his native land of California from Berrien Springs, MI where he teaches systematic theology at Andrews University.

Convocation
Convocation is fast approaching! Be proactive and register now at weimar.org/convocation.
"Something better" is the watchword of education, the law of all true living. Whatever Christ asks us to renounce, He offers in its stead something better. Often the youth cherish objects, pursuits, and pleasures that may not appear to be evil, but that fall short of the highest good. They divert the life from its noblest aim. Arbitrary measures or direct denunciation may not avail in leading these youth to relinquish that which they hold dear. Let them be directed to something better than display, ambition, or self-indulgence. Bring them in contact with truer beauty, with loftier principles, and with nobler lives. Lead them to behold the One "altogether lovely." When once the gaze is fixed upon Him, the life finds its center. The enthusiasm, the generous devotion, the passionate ardor, of the youth find here their true object. Duty becomes a delight and sacrifice a pleasure. To honor Christ, to become like Him, to work for Him, is the life's highest ambition and its greatest joy. Education 297

Something better?
Is that what we’re seeking, or are we content with “ok”, “fine”, “good”, “status quo”? Can we afford not to seek something better?
