Journey to the Sanctuary

Earlier this week, a team of workers flocked to the valley between the college and academy to set up the sanctuary. Wednesday evening, they kicked things off with a special tour for staff and clergy. The tour guides are a mix of young people from Oklahoma Academy (the alma mater of the model) and college students from Weimar. You won’t want to miss taking a tour at least once if you’re up in the Weimar area.

Weimar is putting a hefty effort in promoting the Journey to the Sanctuary experience. It’s being marketed through print, web, radio, television, billboards, and press releases. To give you a better idea of what that looks like:

Press: 10,000 full-color handbills were produced and to-date over 7,500 have been distributed throughout the capital-city region with emphasis on Auburn, Colfax, Meadow Vista and the communities in the foothills.
11x17 posters have been printed and placed in a variety of locations in the area.

Web: Two websites are posting the banners.
A Christian music webpage already has it up and Comcast’s Xfinity.com homepage in the Sacramento area will have it posted during this coming week.

Radio: Time has been purchased on the areas leading Christian radio stations.
-AM 710 KFIA: 20 spots
-103.9 FM KKFS "The Fish": 48 spots with "LIVE READS" on Fridays May 25, June 1, June 8

Television: From May 31-June 9, Comcast in Sacramento will air at total of 528 of our 30 second television commercials on the following networks: Fox News, CNN ESPN2, History, Lifetime, Oprah Winfrey Network, Home & Garden, Golf Channel, Food, Bravo, A&E.

Outdoor: Two billboards have been secured along I-80. The first is by the 65 in Rocklin. The second is right before Exit 130 to Weimar.

Press Releases: Our press releases have been sent to all the major media outlets in the area.

Keep the people in your prayers who will be touched through these various avenues. We want the message to spread.

Weimar Academy End-of-the-Year

Wednesday night was the academy’s end-of-the-year show on the soccer field. Thanks to Weimar Academy Media, the show not only brought back funny memories, but encouraged us spiritually. A great way to finish off the school year. Kudos Media Crew!

Quote of the Weekly

God desired to lift them to a higher moral level, and to this end He sought to give them a knowledge of Himself...But the people were slow to learn the lesson. Accustomed as they had been in Egypt to material representations of the Deity, and these of the most degrading nature, it was difficult for them to conceive of the existence or the character of the Unseen One. In pity for their weakness, God gave them a symbol of His presence. "Let them make Me a sanctuary," He said; "that I may dwell among them." Exodus 25:8.
