Dear Center For Adventist Research,

Greetings again from Weimar as we start the new school year and get this newsletter on the road again. We hope you enjoy this update.

Weekly Webcast

Our presenter for Friday night vespers will be Don Mackintosh. Join us Friday night, 7pm, for another great vespers. weimartv.com

The college is having a rest and relaxation weekend and will be heading to Castle Peak for a nice sabbath hike and fellowship getting to know each other better.

Webcast Archives

If you have been missing the weekly webcast lately the majority of them have been recorded and can be seen in the WeimarTV archive. In case you missed Sung Hoon Kang's personal testimony several weeks ago, we invite you to listen to it on Audioverse.
Maranatha Volunteers at Weimar Institute

Maranatha will be leading volunteers in revamping Weimar Echo Hall for classrooms, primarily for laboratory space as well as for temporary chapel facilities. The current chapel cannot accommodate the entire student body, and Weimar urgently needs a place for the campus to worship and meet.

Academy School Year Has Begun!

There are always those questions at the start of a new beginning, "What will it be like? How do I fit in? What does God want me to do?" This new school year was no exception. Those questions have gone through our heads too; but, the good thing is we have begun to find answers to those questions in the everyday learning experience at Weimar Academy. As we continue the third week of this school year, we have steadily gotten to know one another and have grown closer to the greatest Teacher who ever lived. Please continue to pray that God’s will is done in our school and in our lives this year. We are very excited to see the amazing things that He has planned for us!

Weimar College: "Let’s Begin With Prayer"

A new school year began at Weimar with over 70 college students, 55 academy students, 25 AFCOE students, and 18 HEALTH students trickling in from summer canvassing programs and homes in different parts of the world. HEALTH is a new health evangelism training course. Every evening the students gathered for a week of prayer in the large tent outside the Hillside dorm. The range of speakers included a blend of new and returning faculty from the college and the HEALTH program including Skip Dodson, a new faculty member in the Religion Department and Bonnie Dent, a new faculty member in the Department of Health Sciences. Also introduced during this week of prayer was Sylvana Shaffer, the new ladies dean and history instructor, as well as Kevin Doe, the new men’s dean and work education coordinator.

The week of prayer, which focused on the subject of surrender, culminated with a Sabbath service on campus and door-to-door outreach in the afternoon. Students and faculty continued the NEWSTART Singers ministry by singing hymns in the local community. One group that went out reported that as they began singing Amazing Grace on the porch outside someone’s house a woman came out and joined in the song. When they had finished she said this wasn’t that first time that Weimar College students had come singing to her home and that she was so grateful they had returned. Before they parted ways the group prayed with the lady. It was one more prayer in a long chain of prayers that will be crucial throughout the rest of the year.

Here is a great deal you’ll want to share with your friends or family before it’s too late.

Quote of the Week

We would like to leave you with a quote about the fruits of the labors of parents and teachers. It is a beautiful thing to see fruits on this earth, but even if we do not see it, we will see in heaven that our work was not in vain. Be encouraged to remain strong in what God calls us to do in order to teach our young people how to fall in love with Jesus and live for Him.
"There all who have wrought with unselfish spirit will behold the fruit of their labors. The outworking of every right principle and noble deed will be seen.... How little of the result of the world’s noblest work is in this life manifest to the doer! ... Parents and teachers lie down in their last sleep, their lifework seeming to have been wrought in vain; they know not that their faithfulness has unsealed springs of blessing that can never cease to flow ... , and the influence repeats itself a thousandfold.... In the hereafter the action and reaction of all these will be seen." – {ML 366.5}

We love hearing from you! We hope you enjoy reading about what God is doing at Weimar. If you have a comment, story, or question, please write to content@weimar.org.

Have a blessed Sabbath and a happy new week.
