Dear Center For Adventist Research,

Weekly Webcast

Our speaker for vespers this Friday night will be a special with PAC Testimonies and special musics. Please join us in person or at weimarty.com for live streaming.

Renovation in the Media Studio

We have just finished installing new sound foam in the recording studio as well as cleaning out and painting our new classroom. These improvements have already been a tremendous blessing. At the time of writing we are recording some college interviews. We have also setup and painted a new classroom so that the new two year Media Degree Students can study and work while the Interns continue working in the studio.
Missionaries from India

This morning for chapel we had a missionary couple visit the college to share about their work in India. The Stones are employing some sixty to ninety pastors, Adventist and others. When they first came into contact with the pastors there, even Adventist pastors, they realized that they didn't even know their Bibles. For example, When giving an evangelistic series, all three pastors came up to him afterwards and asked him if the sermon he gave about the state of the dead was his own opinion or one of our doctrines. The work is going forward in India but the laborers are indeed few in comparison.

Academy Prophecy Week & Remodel
Next week the academy will be having a Prophecy Week, October 16-21. Morning meetings will be from 7:45 – 9:00 am and will be on the book of Daniel. Evening meetings will be from 6:45 – 8:00 pm and will be on the book Revelation. Mike Oxentenko from Reaching Hearts Ministries will be our guest speaker. Please pray that the Holy Spirit will be moving and we will be drawn closer to Jesus through these meetings.

The Academy Center was blessed with some remodeling over last week’s home leave. New flooring was installed through most of the academy as well as the final touch in painting was completed. The picture is of our media students preparing for our prophecy week next week in our newly remodeled AC.

Ting-a-lings

1. Melt the first 3 ingredients in a sauce pan.
2. Stir with a wire whip as the peanut butter starts to soften.
3. Add the carob chips and keep stirring until they are melted with the peanut butter.
4. Remove from heat.
5. Stir in the cashew pieces, chow mein noodles, and raisins.
6. Place plastic wrap on a cookie sheet and drop the mixture by spoonfuls in desired shapes.
7. Refrigerate until set up, about 20 minutes.

Quote of the Week

"It is not enough to fill the minds of the youth with lessons of deep importance; they must learn to impart what they have received...
The teachers and students in our schools need the divine touch. God can do much more for them than He has done, because in the past His way has been restricted. If a missionary spirit is encouraged, even if it takes some hours from the program of regular study, much of Heaven’s blessing will be given, provided there is more faith and spiritual zeal, more of a realization of what God will do." - Counsels to Parents, Teachers, and Students, 546.

We love hearing from you! We hope you enjoy reading about what God is doing at Weimar. If you have a comment, story, or question, please email us at content@weimar.org.

Have a blessed Sabbath and a happy new week.

Weimar Media Department
Ting-a-ling Recipe

Ingredients:
- ½ c. peanut butter
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- ¼ c. water
- 3 c. carob chips
- 2 c. cashew pieces toasted in oven (optional)
- 2 c. chow mein noodles
- ½ c. raisins

Instructions:
1. Melt the first 3 ingredients in a sauce pan.
2. Stir with a wire whip as the peanut butter starts to soften.
3. Add the carob chips and keep stirring until they are melted with the peanut butter.
4. Remove from heat.
5. Stir in the cashew pieces, chow mein noodles, and raisins.
6. Place plastic wrap on a cookie sheet and drop the mixture by spoonfuls in desired shapes.
7. Refrigerate until set up, about 20 minutes.

Tags: Desserts, American