I almost cried... / Cicero, Indiana / 2 minute Prepare to Meet Your God devotional videos

All everyone,

Last night almost made me cry. In the course of getting my six-year-old son Seth ready for bed, we had just finished reading a wonderful bedtime story called, What Would Jesus Do? (I highly recommended this book for parents with small children). On the last page, the question was asked, "Have you given your life to Jesus?" I read this sentence to Seth and then waited... "I don't know..." he replied slowly and thoughtfully. "Yes, I will!" he blurted out seconds later. Then he jumped up and down on the bed and began excitedly telling me how happy all the angels were at his decision. He started singing too. Just to clarify, Seth had already accepted Jesus as a younger child, but last night - he's older now - he definitely made a more informed decision in accordance with his advancing age. As you can imagine, I was thrilled at his deepening commitment. He then added, "If Satan tempts me, and I fall, I'll tell Jesus I'm sorry, and then get up and do what is right!" Praise God! His response contains wisdom for us all.

Have you given your heart to Jesus? I PRAY SO.

Tomorrow Gilbert Navarro and I head to Cicero, Indiana, where I will speak six times to a large group of high school students at Cicero Academy. Rest assured that I will appeal to them to give their hearts to Jesus Christ, too. Please pray for these kids. If you live anywhere near Cicero, and wish to attend, contact Pastor Gary Macomber for details (231-920-7785; gmacomber@cnonline.net). Everyone is welcome.

This Saturday morning (Jan. 29), from 7-8 am Eastern Time, I will also be interviewed on the large CBS affiliate KDKA Pittsburgh radio show, Weekend Magazine with Rob Pratte, discussing the biblical "signs of [Christ's] coming, and of the end of the world" (Matthew 24:3).
Locally, White Horse Media remains in high gear to begin operations our new headquarters in Priest River, Idaho. Kitchen and restroom cabinets are being created as I write this, and ceiling lights will soon be installed, then we will begin setting up desks, file cabinets, bookshelves, and organizing our product line. White Horse Media also wants to welcome our newest helper, Trista Cowert (her picture will be posted on our website soon), who is now being trained to assist Kathe Navarro in our office. Our TV studio is also being prepared by White Horse Media producer Charles Lawson to begin filming asap a series (I will be the speaker) of short, 2 minute "Prepare to Meet Your God" devotionals which you will receive by email, can "click," and then "watch" online. These should be a great spiritual boost to your day.

Unfortunately, ongoing ministry expenses will never end until Jesus comes, and so, as always, your contributions are deeply appreciated.

May God bless you and yours,

Steve Wohlberg
