Japan devastated, nuclear threat, Sunday Preterist interview, Jesus is coming!

Today's headlines read:

- Tide of bodies overwhelms quake-hit Japan
- Meltdown threat rises at Japanese nuclear plant

I was watching Fox News Friday morning just after the quake hit. Commentator Shepherd Smith, after covering Japan, the tsunami, Libya's war, and the “Day of Rage” threatening both the stability of Saudi Arabia and the world economy, he then confessed, "I've never seen anything like this! Today is a new day in news." His comments sounded so apocalyptic. Make no mistake! about it: 1) larger disasters are pending, 2) the return of Jesus Christ is "even at the doors" (Matthew 24:33), 3), now is our time to prepare to meet God.

Friday I sent out an e-blast entitled, "Earthquakes, tsunamis, signs of the end?" to my list of radio hosts, and John Anderson, host of The Voice of Reason, responded right away. The interview was yesterday, from 4-5 pacific time. John is a "Preterist," meaning that he believes that all prophecy was completely fulfilled in 70 AD (when the Jewish temple was destroyed by the Romans) and that there are no current "signs" of the end anywhere. Whether you realize it or not, "Preterism" is gaining strength around the world as a reaction to Left Behind theology, and the issues are critical. If you wish to hear our discussion, Jeff Kyle recorded it and posted it on our website here.

This afternoon I will be interviewed again by Derek Gilbert, host of View from the Bunker. Later we'll post that too.

March 25,26 Gilbert Navarro and I will be in Wichita, Kansas, for my next weekend seminar entitled, Mark of the Beast Mysteries Unveiled. All are invited. For details, contact Pastor Nathan Stearman (nstearman@gmail.com).
I'll close with this quote. Notice carefully:

Everything in the world is in agitation. The signs of the times are ominous. Coming events cast their shadows before. The Spirit of God is withdrawing from the earth, and calamity follows calamity by sea and by land. There are tempests, earthquakes, fires, floods, murders of every grade. Who can read the future? Where is security? There is assurance in nothing that is human or earthly. Rapidly are men ranging themselves under the banner they have chosen. Restlessly are they waiting and watching the movements of their leaders. There are those who are waiting and watching and working for our Lord’s appearing. Another class are falling into line under the generalship of the first great apostate. Few believe with heart and soul that we have a hell to s! hun and a heaven to win.

The crisis is stealing gradually upon us. The sun shines in the heavens, passing over its usual round, and the heavens still declare the glory of God. Men are still eating and drinking, planting and building, marrying, and giving in marriage. Merchants are still buying and selling. Men are jostling one against another, contending for the highest place. Pleasure lovers are still crowding to theaters, horse races, gambling hells. The highest excitement prevails, yet probation’s hour is fast closing, and every case is about to be eternally decided. Satan sees that his time is short. He has set all his agencies at work that men may be deceived, deluded, occupied and entranced, until the day of probation shall be ended, and the door of mercy be forever shut.

Solemnly there come to us down through the centuries the warning words of our Lord from the Mount of Olives: “Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.” “Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.” The Desire of Ages, p. 636.

Maranatha!
