Believe me, Lucifer doesn't want you to read this. Resist distractions. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT.

Shortly after the Japan quake hit earlier this year, I had a strong impression inside my heart that I should write a new little tract about natural disasters that could be scattered like the leaves of autumn. Shortly after this impression, I spoke by phone to Nelson Ernst who works with Glow, a publisher of tracts. "We need a new tract on disasters," Nelson told me, "will you write it?" He mentioned this first, not me, which only deepened my conviction. "I'll do it," I replied quickly. As I wrote it, honestly, I sensed (as Nehemiah did so long ago) "the good hand of my God upon me" (Nehemiah 2:8).

The tract is finished, and I firmly believe it will be the most widely read piece of literature I have ever penned. 1 million copies will be in print by next week, and this is just the beginning, for Glow is preparing to have it translated into many languages. The same tract will have four different covers: one about earthquakes, one showing a huge fire, one showing a terrible flood, and one with a massive tornado. Our goal is for individual Christians, ministries, evangelistic organizations and churches all over the world to share it widely, blanketing entire towns, and distributing it throughout cities.

When a major earthquake strikes, the tract with the earthquake cover can be distributed. For those living in tornado ravaged south, the tract with the tornado on the cover is perfect. Those in Arizona can use the tract with the wildfire cover. And so on. Believe me, the tract is powerful! In one short read people will discover the real reason why killer disasters are increasing - key truths found in the Book of importance of the Ten Commandments (each is listed), the loving character of God, the Sabbath, the Good News of salvation through Jesus Christ, and the urgency of surrendering wholly to God today.

To read it now, for prices, and for all the information you need, click here.

As killer disasters increase, sharing a tiny tract like this is one of the simplest, easiest, and most cost-effective ways to reach the general public with the gospel of Jesus Christ and the message of preparing for His soon return. When you pay for a product at a cash register, hand out a tract. "Here's something to read when you have time," is a good one-liner. For those who are really shy, tracts can easily be inserted into envelopes when you pay your bills. The back of each tract also offers a course of Bible Studies by contacting Glow, and the names of those who request personal studies, or a visit from a pastor, will be channeled back to your church for follow-up. Thus, by giving out these tracts you are not only sharing the message of Jesus Christ, but you are also offering an opportunity for Bible studies that may result in new friendships for your local church to follow up on.

Again, killer disasters are increasing, and the public is deeply stirred. "Why disasters?" is a question millions are asking. We know the answer. God is withdrawing His Spirit (see Revelation 7:1-3). Jesus Christ is coming soon!

White Horse Media is all about spreading God's truth and winning souls for the Master. "He who wins souls is wise" (Proverbs 11:30). "Those who turn many to righteousness [shall shine] like the stars forever and ever" (Daniel 12:3).

Again, read the tract here.\nTalk to your church leadership.\nPurchase tracts for your church.\nBe bold for Jesus Christ!\nTracts can now be ordered online or by calling White Horse Media.\n1-800-782-4253.

I'll by buying these tracts too, and passing them out myself. Even my kids can do it. So can you.

In Him,
Steve Wohlberg\nSpeaker/Director, White Horse Media\nwww.whitehorsememedia.com

White Horse Media is a faith ministry that exists entirely because of the generous contributions of those who appreciate its worldwide impact for Jesus Christ through television, radio, books, CDs, DVDs, seminars, and the Internet. To donate, click here.

To "sign up" for our White Horse e-newsletters, click here (see "F-News Sign Up").
Feel free to forward these to your family, friends, Twitter, and Facebook lists.
Making Sense of Natural Disasters

This amazing little tract written by Steve Wohlberg explains why killer disasters such as large earthquakes, tornados, fires, and flood are taking place, and why they are increasing in frequency and destructiveness. Of all that Steve has written, he feels that this small tract will be read more widely than any other article, tract, pocketbook or book he has ever penned. The same identical tract comes with four different covers, each highlighting earthquakes, fires, tornados, and floods. You can view each cover, plus read the tract in its entirety, by clicking the links below (note: these are all in PDF format so you must have Adobe Acrobat Reader on your computer).

Making Sense of Natural Disasters - Earthquakes (PDF)
Making Sense of Natural Disasters - Fires (PDF)
Making Sense of Natural Disasters - Floods (PDF)
Making Sense of Natural Disasters - Tornados (PDF)

Prices:

.05 each in packs of 100.
10 packs (1,000 tracts): $50
50 packs (5,000 tracts): $250
100 packs (10,000 tracts): $500
200 packs (20,000 tracts): $1000
500 packs (50,000 tracts): $2500

Note: Because White Horse Media has a small staff we request a minimum order of at least 10 packs for $50. When you order online, we will automatically send you tracts with all 4 covers so that, depending on what disaster is most current in the news, you can then give out tracts with that cover. If you live in an area that has been hit particularly hard by a single disaster, you may request that all of your tracts have only one cover. In this case, you must then place your order by calling White Horse Media directly (1-800-782-4253) and specify the cover. White Horse Media hopes to distribute millions of these tracts to individuals, evangelistic organizations, and churches. The back of each tract also offers a course of Bible Studies so that readers can learn more about God's Word. Those who want personal studies, or a visit from a pastor, will then be channeled back to your local church for follow-up. Therefore, by giving out these tracts you are not only spreading the message Jesus Christ, but you are also offering an opportunity for further Bible studies that may result in new friendships for your local church to follow up on.

Killer disasters are increasing.
People are searching for answers.
We should take advantage of these tragic events to introduce people to Jesus Christ. Sharing tracts is easy, and inexpensive too.

Order your tracts today!

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Price</th>
<th>Order</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Pack of 100 Tracts</td>
<td>$5.00</td>
<td>ADD TO CART</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Available Products For Making Sense of Natural Disasters

If you have questions or comments about the functions of this website, contact us here.
What on Earth is Going On?

You have probably noticed that Planet Earth appears to be ripping apart at the seams these days. Almost every week we hear fresh reports of yet another earthquake, fire, flood, or tornado sweeping thousands, or tens of thousands, or even hundreds of thousands into death’s icy grip – and into eternity. It’s heart breaking.

"International mayhem increases at every turn," moaned Tina Brown, Newsweek’s Editor in Chief. "Has the world gone crazy?" she wondered.

Honestly, we cannot discover the true answer by merely watching CNN or Fox News. Believe it or not, the only place we can turn to for up-to-the-minute, 100% reliable information about why such horrendous catastrophes seem to be daily increasing across the globe is an ancient book whose cryptic prophecies pinpoint our generation. It’s the last book of the Bible: the book of Revelation.

Notice carefully Revelation’s description of how – immediately preceding the Second Coming of Jesus Christ – heavenly angels are depicted as holding back global desolation: “After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, ‘Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads’” (Revelation 7:1-3).

“The four winds of the earth” represent worldwide conflict, war, and especially, natural disasters; and the “four angels” restraining these winds represent the benevolent forces of a loving Creator who is even now preventing all hell from breaking loose. But as we get closer to “the great day” of God Almighty (see Revelation 6:17), these heavenly sentinels finally begin to loosen their grip on pent up – and often satanically inspired – forces of death and destruction. This is the real reason why deadly disasters are increasing daily.

One insightful Christian writer commented: “The restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world. Hurricanes, storms, tempests, fire and flood, disasters by sea and land, follow each other in quick succession. Science seeks to explain all these. The signs thickening around us, telling of the near approach of the Son of God, are attributed to any other than the true cause. Men cannot discern the sentinel angels restraining the four winds that they shall not blow until the servants of God are sealed; but when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture.”

This explains the facts perfectly. University trained scientists may offer other explanations, but the truth is that increasing “disasters by sea and by land” reveal that “the restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world.” But why? What is humanity doing to cause the Maker of heaven and earth to withdraw His protection from those He created, loves, and seeks to save?

The answer is startling, yet simple. On every continent, in every smog-polluted city, and on every tropical island across the deep blue sea, the vast majority of earth’s teeming inhabitants are now openly, recklessly, and persistently – without fear of eternal consequences – breaking the Ten Commandments, which the Bible states were originally “written with the finger of God” (Exodus 31:18) on two tablets of solid rock. “Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God,” wrote Paul in Ephesians 4:30. Yet today’s irreligious, happy-go-lucky, party-loving multitudes are doing exactly that 24-7. This is the true reason why God is withdrawing His hand.

Essentially, here are God’s Ten Commandments in plain language:

1. Put God first
2. Do not worship idols
3. Respect God’s Name
4. Keep the seventh day holy
5. Honor your parents
6. Do not murder
7. Do not commit adultery
8. Do not steal
9. Do not lie
10. Do not covet (read Exodus 20:3-17)

According to God’s Book, breaking the Ten Commandments is sin. “Sin is the transgression of the law” (1 John 3:4), affirmed John. Yet “God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son” (John 3:16) to endure the full penalty of this broken law on a cruel cross in our place. “Christ died for our sins” (1 Corinthians 15:3) is Heaven’s Good News. If we are willing to repent, confess, and have faith in Jesus as our Savior, “He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9). Those who do this in these end-times – thereby manifesting their loyalty to each of the Ten Commandments – will receive “the seal of the living God … on their foreheads” (Revelation 7:2,3). They will also be perfectly protected when “the four winds” are fully loosed and “the Devil and Satan” (see Revelation 12:9) takes full control. As cruel and devastating as massive earthquakes, killer tsunamis, unstoppable fires, overflowing floods, and horrific tornados are, God nevertheless has a purpose in allowing these nightmares to decimate His world. In a nutshell, He is desperately trying to get our attention. “Repent!” is His urgent plea in the midst of the storm. Yet few listen. A careful study of the book of Revelation also implies that sincere yet misguided religious leaders will eventually misinterpret these events and claim that “God is directly punishing human beings for their refusal to keep Sunday sacred,” even though the Ten Commandments plainly identify “the seventh day” (Saturday) as the true day of rest. If you should ever hear such an interpretation of current events, don’t be fooled by such reasoning. Read Exodus 20:8-11 and Revelation 14:12. The Bible reveals the truth.

On Sunday night, October 8, 1871, the famous evangelist D.L. Moody was preaching to an immense crowd in Chicago about the importance of sinners making commitments to Jesus Christ. “Call for decisions now!” was the urgent impression of the Holy Spirit to the preacher. But Moody hesitated. Instead, he told his spellbound hearers that he would call for decisions next week. That crowd never returned. During the closing song the loud sirens of fire trucks declared that the Great Chicago Fire had begun. It blazed for two days, killing hundreds. Oh how Moody later wished he had made that appeal!

Dear reader, deadly disasters can strike at any moment. Tomorrow we may be dead. Yet in the midst of heartache and loss of life, God suffers too, just like He did when His own Son died upon a cross. For our encouragement, His Word promises that someday – when the foul odor of sin vanishes away forever – there will be “no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. For the former things have passed away” (Revelation 21:4). Above all, make sure you don’t miss Heaven. Choose Jesus Christ today!

1. Newsweek, editorial, March 28, 2011
What on Earth is Going On?

You have probably noticed that Planet Earth appears to be ripping apart at the seams these days. Almost every week we hear fresh reports of yet another earthquake, fire, flood, or tornado sweeping thousands, or tens of thousands, or even hundreds of thousands into death’s icy grip – and into eternity. It’s heart breaking.

“International mayhem increases at every turn,” moaned Tina Brown, Newsweek’s Editor in Chief. “Has the world gone crazy?” she wondered.

Honestly, we cannot discover the true answer by merely watching CNN or Fox News. Believe it or not, the only place we can turn to for up-to-the-minute, 100% reliable information about why such horrendous catastrophes seem to be daily increasing across the globe is an ancient book whose cryptic prophecies pinpoint our generation. It’s the last book of the Bible: the book of Revelation.

Notice carefully Revelation’s description of how – immediately preceding the Second Coming of Jesus Christ – heavenly angels are depicted as holding back global desolation: “After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, ‘Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads’” (Revelation 7:1-3).

“Four winds of the earth” represent worldwide conflict, war, and especially, natural disasters; and the “four angels” restraining these winds represent the benevolent forces of a loving Creator who is even now preventing all hell from breaking loose. But as we get closer to “the great day” of God Almighty (see Revelation 6:17), these heavenly sentinels finally begin to loosen their grip over pent up – and often satanically inspired – forces of death and destruction. This is the real reason why deadly disasters are increasing daily.

One insightful Christian writer commented: “The restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world. Hurricanes, storms, tempests, fire and flood, disasters by sea and land, follow each other in quick succession. Science seeks to explain all these. The signs thickening around us, telling of the near approach of the Son of God, are attributed to any other than the true cause. Men cannot discern the sentinel angels restraining the four winds that they shall not blow until the servants of God are sealed; but when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture.”

This explains the facts perfectly. University trained scientists may offer other explanations, but the truth is that increasing “disasters by sea and by land” reveal that “the restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world.” But why? What is humanity doing to cause the Maker of heaven and earth to withdraw His protection from those He created, loves, and seeks to save? The answer is startling, yet simple. On every continent, in every smog-polluted city, and on every tropical island across the deep blue sea, the vast majority of earth’s teeming inhabitants are now openly, recklessly, and persistently – without fear of eternal consequences – breaking the Ten Commandments, which the Bible states were originally “written with the finger of God” (Exodus 31:18) on two tablets of solid rock. “Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God,” wrote Paul in Ephesians 4:30. Yet today’s irreligious, happy-go-lucky, party-loving multitudes are doing exactly that 24-7. This is the true reason why God is withdrawing His hand.

It’s the last book of the Bible: the book of Revelation. Notice carefully Revelation’s description of how – immediately preceding the Second Coming of Jesus Christ – heavenly angels are depicted as holding back global desolation: “After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, ‘Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads’” (Revelation 7:1-3).

“Four winds of the earth” represent worldwide conflict, war, and especially, natural disasters; and the “four angels” restraining these winds represent the benevolent forces of a loving Creator who is even now preventing all hell from breaking loose. But as we get closer to “the great day” of God Almighty (see Revelation 6:17), these heavenly sentinels finally begin to loosen their grip over pent up – and often satanically inspired – forces of death and destruction. This is the real reason why deadly disasters are increasing daily.

One insightful Christian writer commented: “The restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world. Hurricanes, storms, tempests, fire and flood, disasters by sea and land, follow each other in quick succession. Science seeks to explain all these. The signs thickening around us, telling of the near approach of the Son of God, are attributed to any other than the true cause. Men cannot discern the sentinel angels restraining the four winds that they shall not blow until the servants of God are sealed; but when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture.”

This explains the facts perfectly. University trained scientists may offer other explanations, but the truth is that increasing “disasters by sea and by land” reveal that “the restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world.” But why? What is humanity doing to cause the Maker of heaven and earth to withdraw His protection from those He created, loves, and seeks to save? The answer is startling, yet simple. On every continent, in every smog-polluted city, and on every tropical island across the deep blue sea, the vast majority of earth’s teeming inhabitants are now openly, recklessly, and persistently – without fear of eternal consequences – breaking the Ten Commandments, which the Bible states were originally “written with the finger of God” (Exodus 31:18) on two tablets of solid rock. “Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God,” wrote Paul in Ephesians 4:30. Yet today’s irreligious, happy-go-lucky, party-loving multitudes are doing exactly that 24-7. This is the true reason why God is withdrawing His hand.

According to God’s Book, breaking the Ten Commandments is sin. “Sin is the transgression of the law” (1 John 3:4), affirmed John. Yet “God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son” (John 3:16) to endure the full penalty of this broken law on a cruel cross in our place. “He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9). Those who do this in these end-times – thereby manifesting their loyalty to each of the Ten Commandments – will receive “the seal of God’s Ten Commandments in plain language:

1. Put God first
2. Do not worship idols
3. Respect God’s Name
4. Keep the seventh day holy
5. Honor your parents
6. Do not murder
7. Do not commit adultery
8. Do not steal
9. Do not lie
10. Do not covet (read Exodus 20:3-17)
On Sunday night, October 8, 1871, the famous evangelist D.L. Moody was preaching to an immense crowd in Chicago about the importance of sinners making commitments to Jesus Christ. “Call for decisions now!” was the urgent impression of the Holy Spirit to the preacher. But Moody hesitated. Instead, he told his spellbound hearers that he would call for decisions next week. That crowd never returned. During the closing song the loud sirens of fire trucks declared that the Great Chicago Fire had begun. It blazed for two days, killing hundreds. Oh how Moody later wished he had made that appeal!

Dear reader, deadly disasters can strike at any moment. Tomorrow we may be dead. Yet in the midst of heartache and loss of life, God suffers too, just like He did when His own Son died upon a cross. For our encouragement, His Word promises that someday—when the foul odor of sin vanishes away forever—there will be “no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. For the former things have passed away” (Revelation 21:4). Above all, make sure you don’t miss Heaven. Choose Jesus Christ today!

1. Newsweek, editorial, March 28, 2011
What on Earth is Going On?

You have probably noticed that Planet Earth appears to be ripping apart at the seams these days. Almost every week we hear fresh reports of yet another earthquake, fire, flood, or tornado sweeping thousands, or tens of thousands, or even hundreds of thousands into death’s icy grip – and into eternity. It’s heart breaking.

“International mayhem increases at every turn,” moaned Tina Brown, Newsweek’s Editor in Chief. “Has the world gone crazy?” she wondered.

Honestly, we cannot discover the true answer by merely watching CNN or Fox News. Believe it or not, the only place we can turn to for up-to-the-minute, 100% reliable information about why such horrendous catastrophes seem to be daily increasing across the globe is an ancient book whose cryptic prophecies pinpoint our generation. It’s the last book of the Bible: the book of Revelation.

Notice carefully Revelation’s description of how – immediately preceding the Second Coming of Jesus Christ – heavenly angels are depicted as holding back global desolation: “After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, ‘Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads’” (Revelation 7:1-3).

“The four winds of the earth” represent worldwide conflict, war, and especially, natural disasters; and the “four angels” restraining these winds represent the benevolent forces of a loving Creator who is even now preventing all hell from breaking loose. But as we get closer to “the great day” of God Almighty (see Revelation 6:17), these heavenly sentinels finally begin to loosen their grip over pent up – and often satanically inspired – forces of death and destruction. This is the real reason why deadly disasters are increasing daily.

One insightful Christian writer commented: “The restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world. Hurricanes, storms, tempests, fire and flood, disasters by sea and land, follow each other in quick succession. Science seeks to explain all these. The signs thickening around us, telling of the near approach of the Son of God, are attributed to any other than the true cause. Men cannot discern the sentinel angels restraining the four winds that they shall not blow until the servants of God are sealed; but when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture.”

This explains the facts perfectly. University trained scientists may offer other explanations, but the truth is that increasing “disasters by sea and by land” reveal that “the restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world.” But why? What is humanity doing to cause the Maker of heaven and earth to withdraw His protection from those He created, loves, and seeks to save? The answer is startling, yet simple. On every continent, in every smog-polluted city, and on every tropical island across the deep blue sea, the vast majority of earth’s teeming inhabitants are now openly, recklessly, and persistently – without fear of eternal consequences – breaking the Ten Commandments, which the Bible states were originally “written with the finger of God” (Exodus 31:18) on two tablets of solid rock. “Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God,” wrote Paul in Ephesians 4:30. Yet today’s irreligious, happy-go-lucky, party-loving multitudes are doing exactly that 24-7. This is the true reason why God is withdrawing His hand.

It’s the last book of the Bible: the book of Revelation. Notice carefully Revelation’s description of how – immediately preceding the Second Coming of Jesus Christ – heavenly angels are depicted as holding back global desolation: “After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, ‘Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads’” (Revelation 7:1-3).

One insightful Christian writer commented: “The restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world. Hurricanes, storms, tempests, fire and flood, disasters by sea and land, follow each other in quick succession. Science seeks to explain all these. The signs thickening around us, telling of the near approach of the Son of God, are attributed to any other than the true cause. Men cannot discern the sentinel angels restraining the four winds that they shall not blow until the servants of God are sealed; but when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture.”

This explains the facts perfectly. University trained scientists may offer other explanations, but the truth is that increasing “disasters by sea and by land” reveal that “the restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world.” But why? What is humanity doing to cause the Maker of heaven and earth to withdraw His protection from those He created, loves, and seeks to save? The answer is startling, yet simple. On every continent, in every smog-polluted city, and on every tropical island across the deep blue sea, the vast majority of earth’s teeming inhabitants are now openly, recklessly, and persistently – without fear of eternal consequences – breaking the Ten Commandments, which the Bible states were originally “written with the finger of God” (Exodus 31:18) on two tablets of solid rock. “Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God,” wrote Paul in Ephesians 4:30. Yet today’s irreligious, happy-go-lucky, party-loving multitudes are doing exactly that 24-7. This is the true reason why God is withdrawing His hand.

According to God’s Book, breaking the Ten Commandments is sin. “Sin is the transgression of the law” (1 John 3:4), affirmed John. Yet “God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son” (John 3:16) to endure the full penalty of this broken law on a cruel cross in our place. “Christ died for our sins” (1 Corinthians 15:3) is Heaven’s Good News. If we are willing to repent, confess, and have faith in Jesus as our Savior, “He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9). Those who do this in these end-times – thereby manifesting their loyalty to each of the Ten Commandments – will receive “the seal of the living God … on their foreheads” (Revelation 7:2,3). They will also be perfectly protected when “the four winds” are fully loosed and “the Devil and Satan” (see Revelation 12:9) takes full control. As cruel and devastating as massive earthquakes, killer tsunamis, unstoppable fires, overflowing floods, and horrific tornados are, God nevertheless has a purpose in allowing these nightmares to decimate His world. In a nutshell, He is desperately trying to get our attention. “Repent!” is His urgent plea in the midst of the storm. Yet few listen. A careful study of the book of Revelation also implies that sincere yet misguided religious leaders will eventually misinterpret these events and claim that “God is directly punishing human beings for their refusal to keep Sunday sacred,” even though the Ten Commandments plainly identify “the seventh day” (Saturday) as the true day of rest. If you should ever hear such an interpretation of current events, don’t be fooled by such reasoning. Read Exodus 20:8-11 and Revelation 14:12. The Bible reveals the truth.

On Sunday night, October 8, 1871, the famous evangelist D.L. Moody was preaching to an immense crowd in Chicago about the importance of sinners making commitments to Jesus Christ. “Call for decisions now!” was the urgent impression of the Holy Spirit to the preacher. But Moody hesitated. Instead, he told his spellbound hearers that he would call for decisions next week. That crowd never returned. During the closing song the loud sirens of fire trucks declared that the Great Chicago Fire had begun. It blazed for two days, killing hundreds. Oh how Moody later wished he had made that appeal!

Dear reader, deadly disasters can strike at any moment. Tomorrow we may be dead. Yet in the midst of heartache and loss of life, God suffers too, just like He did when His own Son died upon a cross. For our encouragement, His Word promises that someday – when the foul odor of sin vanishes away forever – there will be “no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. For the former things have passed away” (Revelation 21:4). Above all, make sure you don’t miss Heaven. Choose Jesus Christ today!

1. Newsweek, editorial, March 28, 2011
2. Testimonies for the Church, by Ellen G. White, Vol. 6, p. 408.
   Pacific Press Publishing Association; Mountain View, CA (1941).
What on Earth is Going On?

You have probably noticed that Planet Earth appears to be ripping apart at the seams these days. Almost every week we hear fresh reports of yet another earthquake, fire, flood, or tornado sweeping thousands, or tens of thousands, or even hundreds of thousands into death’s icy grip – and into eternity. It’s heart breaking.

“International mayhem increases at every turn,” moaned Tina Brown, Newsweek’s Editor in Chief. “Has the world gone crazy?” she wondered.

Honestly, we cannot discover the true answer by merely watching CNN or Fox News. Believe it or not, the only place we can turn to for up-to-the-minute, 100% reliable information about why such horrendous catastrophes seem to be daily increasing across the globe is an ancient book whose cryptic prophecies pinpoint our generation. It’s the last book of the Bible: the book of Revelation.

Notice carefully Revelation’s description of how – immediately preceding the Second Coming of Jesus Christ – heavenly angels are depicted as holding back global desolation: “After these things I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree. Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. And he cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, saying, ‘Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads’” (Revelation 7:1-3).

“The four winds of the earth” represent worldwide conflict, war, and especially, natural disasters; and the “four angels” restraining these winds represent the benevolent forces of a loving Creator who is even now preventing all hell from breaking loose. But as we get closer to “the great day” of God Almighty (see Revelation 6:17), these heavenly sentinels finally begin to loosen their grip over pent up – and often satanically inspired – forces of death and destruction. This is the real reason why deadly disasters are increasing daily.

One insightful Christian writer commented: “The restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world. Hurricanes, storms, tempests, fire and flood, disasters by sea and land, follow each other in quick succession. Science seeks to explain all these. The signs thickening around us, telling of the near approach of the Son of God, are attributed to any other than the true cause. Men cannot discern the sentinel angels restraining the four winds that they shall not blow until the servants of God are sealed; but when God shall bid His angels loose the winds, there will be such a scene of strife as no pen can picture.”

This explains the facts perfectly. University trained scientists may offer other explanations, but the truth is that increasing “disasters by sea and by land” reveal that “the restraining Spirit of God is even now being withdrawn from the world.”

But why? What is humanity doing to cause the Maker of heaven and earth to withdraw His protection from those He created, loves, and seeks to save? The answer is startling, yet simple. On every continent, in every smog-polluted city, and on every tropical island across the deep blue sea, the vast majority of earth’s teeming inhabitants are now openly, recklessly, and persistently – without fear of eternal consequences – breaking the Ten Commandments, which the Bible states were originally “written with the finger of God” (Exodus 31:18) on two tablets of solid rock. “Grieve not the Holy Spirit of God,” wrote Paul in Ephesians 4:30. Yet today’s irreligious, happy-go-lucky, party-loving multitudes are doing exactly that 24-7. This is the true reason why God is withdrawing His hand.

Essentially, here are God’s Ten Commandments in plain language:

1. Put God first
2. Do not worship idols
3. Respect God’s Name
4. Keep the seventh day holy
5. Honor your parents
6. Do not murder
7. Do not commit adultery
8. Do not steal
9. Do not lie
10. Do not covet (read Exodus 20:3-17)

According to God’s Book, breaking the Ten Commandments is sin. “Sin is the transgression of the law” (1 John 3:4), affirmed John. Yet “God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son” (John 3:16) to endure the full penalty of this broken law on a cruel cross in our place. “Christ died for our sins” (1 Corinthians 15:3) is Heaven’s Good News. If we are willing to repent, confess, and have faith in Jesus as our Savior, “He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9). Those who do this in these end-times – thereby manifesting their loyalty to each of the Ten Commandments – will receive “the seal of the living God … on their foreheads” (Revelation 7:2,3). They will also be perfectly protected when “the four winds” are fully loosed and “the Devil and Satan” (see Revelation 12:9) takes full control.

As cruel and devastating as massive earthquakes, killer tsunamis, unstoppable fires, overflowing floods, and horrific tornados are, God nevertheless has a purpose in allowing these nightmares to decimate His world. In a nutshell, He is desperately trying to get our attention. “Repent!” is His urgent plea in the midst of the storm. Yet few listen. A careful study of the book of Revelation also implies that sincere yet misguided religious leaders will eventually misinterpret these events and claim that “God is directly punishing human beings for their refusal to keep Sunday sacred,” even though the Ten Commandments plainly identify “the seventh day” (Saturday) as the true day of rest. If you should ever hear such an interpretation of current events, don’t be fooled by such reasoning. Read Exodus 20:8-11 and Revelation 14:12. The Bible reveals the truth.

On Sunday night, October 8, 1871, the famous evangelist D.L. Moody was preaching to an immense crowd in Chicago about the importance of sinners making commitments to Jesus Christ. “Call for decisions now!” was the urgent impression of the Holy Spirit to the preacher. But Moody hesitated. Instead, he told his spellbound hearers that he would call for decisions next week. That crowd never returned. During the closing song the loud sirens of fire trucks declared that the Great Chicago Fire had begun. It blazed for two days, killing hundreds. Oh how Moody later wished he had made that appeal!

Dear reader, deadly disasters can strike at any moment. Tomorrow we may be dead. Yet in the midst of heartache and loss of life, God suffers too, just like He did when His own Son died upon a cross. For our encouragement, His Word promises that someday – when the foul odor of sin vanishes away forever – there will be “no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. For the former things have passed away” (Revelation 21:4). Above all, make sure you don’t miss Heaven. Choose Jesus Christ today!

1. Newsweek, editorial, March 28, 2011