Hello everybody,

Yesterday my family and a small group of church friends celebrated Abby's fourth birthday in our home in Priest River, Idaho, and something small happened that really touched my heart. My wife's parents (Grandpa and Grandma) gave Abby a dollhouse, which was packaged in a large box. When Abby opened her present, her eyes got so big! Then she said with childlike wonder, "Is this really for me?"

Yes, of course it was.

Now, think about Jesus Christ dying on the cross. Separated from His Father, whom He had known throughout all eternity, Jesus paid the full price "for our sins" (1 Corinthians 15:3). Then He rose from the dead.

Like little Abby, you may wonder, "Is this really for me?"

The answer is, YES, IT WAS FOR YOU. HE LOVES YOU! Read 1 John 4:9.

I just thought I would share that with you. I will definitely use this as a "sermon illustration" in future public seminars which, due to God's marvelous providence, have been booked for the entire year of 2012.

God bless you!

Steve

P.S. Last week in an e-news I linked a funny video of Seth and Abby, and some have inquired why it is no longer available for have decided to keep it private. So if you looked and it was unavailable, I apologize.
