Hello everyone,

Here is the link to my radio interview yesterday with The Radio Preacher Man about Pope Francis, the Jesuits, Protestant history, and Bible prophecy. FYI, if you click to listen (then click the blue play button), I suggest that you avoid the preliminaries by skipping forward on the timeline to about 4 and a half minutes which is when my interview actually starts. Believe me, the information about the true history of the Jesuits is very enlightening!
The book of Revelation solemnly predicts that in the final moments of time world rulers "will give their power and strength to the beast" (Revelation 17:13). May Jesus help us to be among the "called, chosen, and faithful" (Revelation 17:14).
