BEWARE of The Emerging Church. New Resources from White Horse Media.

To those seeking to follow Jesus Christ and the Bible, not deception,

Whether you realize it or not, "Emerging Church" (EC) teachings are on the move, are extremely popular, and have 'gone global.' Recognized EC leaders include Rob Bell, Tony Jones, Brian McLaren, Doug Pagitt, Dallas Willard, Leonard Sweet, and Dallas Willard. Essentially, EC advocates teach that, in order for Christianity to effectively influence this "Post-Modern" Youtube/Email/Text/App Generation, it must rethink itself, transform itself, and thus "emerge" into a new form to be relevant. It's sink or swim. "Emerge" or perish.

While EC advocates have a point - yes, God's church must be relevant - their teachings are usually laced with captivating errors. Generally speaking, the EC movement:

1. Is woefully weak about the importance of maintaining "sound doctrine" (see 2 Timothy 4:3) and of living "by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God" (see Matthew 4:4).

2. Is highly ecumenical, not only promoting the value of interdenominational cooperation among Christian churches, but also stressing "interspirituality" with Eastern religions such as Hinduism, Buddhism, or even Wicca.
3. Promotes experiencing God through mystical spiritual disciplines that easily open dark doors to satanic delusion, counterfeit spirituality, and invasion by demons.

4. Ignores, avoids, or even rejects, the God-inspired prophecies of Daniel and Revelation, and the necessity of earnest preparation for "the end of the world" (see Matthew 24:30,31,45-51; 28:20). The New Testament contains solemn warnings to God's saints to watch out for false teachers, erroneous doctrines, and subtle deceptions within Christianity. Notice carefully. Paul warned,

Now the Spirit expressly says that in the latter times some [within the church] will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons (1 Timothy 4:1).

At White Horse Media, we believe that this ancient prophecy is now being fulfilled through Emerging Church teachings. Make no mistake about it. These teachings are dangerous, and open doors to demons. To expose the devil and rescue souls, we have two new resources with the same title: The Emerging Church Trap: Avoid the Bait.
