WHM set to film The Abortion Controversy Feb. 23-25

-- Coming Soon from White Horse Media --

The Abortion Controversy:
Two Women Tell Their Stories of Hope and Healing

A 13-part TV series hosted by Steve Wohlberg, With Special Guests Antionette Duck and Dianne Wagner of Mafgia Ministry (www.mafgia.com)

The Abortion Controversy begins with the gripping testimonies of Dianne Wagner and Antionette Duck, two women who have teamed up to address the abortion crisis. Years ago, Dianne had multiple abortions, suffered unimaginable guilt and pain, and finally found... healing through the love and grace of Jesus Christ. Antionette was nearly aborted herself during her mother's pregnancy, but now lives, loves God, and ministers compassionately to others. Both women have a strong passion to promote the sanctity of life, help post-abortive women find healing, promote God's glory, and help prevent as many abortions as possible. This series is unashamedly pro-life, intelligently addresses pro-choice arguments, difficult Bible verses, church/state issues, includes scientific evidence, and above all, looks to God's Word for guidance. The series will be filmed February 23-25 at White Horse Media's Idaho headquarters, is designed for the public, and will become a powerful resource speaking to the hearts of anyone even remotely interested in the abortion dilemma. The Abortion Controversy will present high moral standards, highlight the 6th and 7th commandments ("You shall not kill," "You shall not commit adultery"), and offer salvation through the grace of Christ.

As a ministry, the Mafgia has prayed to be aligned with those who place their faith in the Word alone and who exalt the LORD as the unshakeable standard who defines our worth. In Steve Wohlberg and White Horse Media, we believe we have found a group of people who do just that. We were born with purpose and created with destiny, and it is a purpose and a destiny that we alone can fill. We possess intrinsic value and eternal significance, characteristics so fundamental to who we are that they cannot be diminished or destroyed. Our lives matter, not because of what we do, achieve or acquire, but simply because we were made in the image of the LORD.

Today the LORD invites us, yet again, to build our lives on the foundation of who He declares us to be. His hand is extended that all might see that being "fearfully and wonderfully made" (Ps. 139:14) doesn't apply to David alone, but is true of every human being.—Antionette Duck, Founder, Mafgia

I was thrilled to find out that Steve Wohlberg wanted to take on the subject of abortion, with all the controversy that surrounds it, and make a 13-part television series dedicated to this issue. He believes the Lord has put it on his heart to do this. As a church we lift up the sanctity of the Sabbath but we have failed to lift up the sanctity of Life. We have been silent too long and I praise the Lord for this voice crying in the wilderness.—Dianne P Wagner, Mafgia Ministries, author, Redeemed, My Journey of Hope and Healing after Abortion

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you ..." Jer. 1:5
"You knit me together in my mother's womb ..." Ps. 139:13
"As soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy." Luke 2:44.

White Horse Media's is a "faith ministry" totally dependent on God and the generous gifts of His people. Our budget for this series is approx. $36,000, which includes travel expenses for participants, all production costs, creating and replicating 1000 DVDs, plus broadcasting costs to air the entire 13-part series worldwide on 3ABN and other networks.
