Dear brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ,

In three days the worldwide Seventh-day Adventist Church will conduct its 60th General Conference Session in San Antonio, Texas. I'll be there. One of the issues on the table for the delegates to vote about concerns whether or not the church should allow different World Divisions to ordain women as pastors, depending on their convictions. No doubt you've heard the saying, "A picture is worth a thousand words." Below is a series of pictures that speak louder than words. None have active links, except the last one, which will take you to an appeal from my friend Pastor Louis Torres. Scroll down now.

IF I CAN'T MARRY MY BOYFRIEND THEN I'LL MARRY YOUR DAUGHTER!
If you have any interest in this controversy, please read Pastor Torres stirring words linked above. For easy sharing of his appeal, see my Facebook page. As church leaders meet in San Antonio to vote, please join me in earnest prayer that God's will shall be done.

When all is said and done, my deepest conviction is that the holy Three Angels' Messages of Revelation 14:6-12 must keep sounding with "a loud voice" around the world.

In case you are wondering, rest assured that THEY WILL, for no devil can stop them.

Keep the faith,
