Three Women Take Sabbath Stand
By: Milicent Taylor
Graduation day is probably the most exciting day in the life of a college graduate. It signifies a moment of accomplishment. Yet, when Amanda Goodluck, a member of the Perrine Seventh-day Adventist church, and Ann-Marie Gray, and Leslie-Ann Krigger, members of the Bethel Seventh-day Adventist church, learned that their graduation from Miami-Dade College would be held on the Sabbath they made the decision not to march with the rest of their class.

Southeastern Pilots NAD Initiative
By: Robert Henley
For two weeks this summer, Kamala Taylor, wife of Winston Taylor - pastor of the Grace Fellowship church in Valdosta, Ga., brought the word of God to the Valdosta community. The reaping series, which was themed Jesus is Coming: Are You Ready?, began on July 21 resulted in one marriage and 16 individuals being baptized.
