I thought I’d let you help me with this part of the newsletter this month. I’m thankful for so many things: God, my husband, my family, my friends, my boss and coworkers, my home, fairly good health, so many different experiences I have had, and much more! What are you thankful for? List it below (You can fill the lines in by clicking on the “pen” icon which allows you to “fill and sign.”):

Thank you for your cooperation in the following matters:

Congratulations,
Graduates!

You are almost there! Remember, per your Lease Agreement:
1. You will have 7 days to move out after the Fall Semester classes end.
2. If you stay longer than 7 days, $10/day will be charged in addition to your rent.
3. You must pay rent for every day you are here, including graduation and all others.

Are you moving?

Have you turned in a 30-day notice?

Rent will be charged for a minimum of 30 days after we are informed that you are moving.

If your lease has not expired, you will have to find someone to take over your lease or pay rent through the expiration of your lease.

Please Note: If you have a balance of $50 or more after the 10th of the month, you will receive a late fee and a hold will be placed on your account.

If you have mail that is not addressed to you and/or members of your household, please bring that to the office regularly. We will take care of it. It is a Federal offense to hold onto the mail of someone else.

Please note: If it is addressed to “Resident” or “Occupant,” that means you. If you do not want it, please throw it out.

When you finish, try doing one of the following things as a creative way to show your thankfulness:

1. Write a poem (prose or rhyme).
2. Write a song.
3. Write, email, or text someone to let them know how special they are to you and your thankfulness for them in your life.
4. Paint a picture using words and imagery to show thankfulness.
5. Other (Think of your own way to express thankfulness.)
