Thankfulness seems to come only once a year. Why is that? Are we truly so completely absorbed in our own worlds that we don’t stop to think about it until November comes around? I’m really just musing aloud as I contemplate this because I really don’t know if you are or are not thankful more than once per year. It seems to me that I am thankful, but don’t purposely think about it except during Thanksgiving season. Why is that? If you are in the same groove as me, what do you think can be done about that...or do you want to do anything about it, haha? :) I would like to be purposely thankful every day for the things I have, the life I live, what God has done for me... Perhaps I could make a list with one thing or more per day on it and at the end of the year, look back on all the items I’ve been fortunate to be able to be thankful for in the year. I could start on November 1. What will you do? Will you do anything to help you be thankful? —Sue
Thank you for your cooperation in the following matters:

Congratulations, Graduates!

You are almost there! Remember, per your Lease Agreement:
1. You will have 7 days to move out after the Fall Semester classes end.
2. If you stay longer than 7 days, $10/day will be charged in addition to your rent.
3. You must pay rent for every day you are here...including the day of graduation and all others.

Please Note: If you have a balance of $50 or more after the 10th of the month, you will receive a late fee and there will be a hold placed on your account.

It has come to our attention that cars have been speeding through our roads and parking lots. Please remember that there are children, bikers, skateboarders, pedestrians, other cars and all kinds of other reasons why this is dangerous. Please slow down! The speed limit is not more than 25 miles per hour on the roads (15 past the back side of the Garland apartments) and 5 miles per hour through our parking lots. If you are going faster than that, you may be putting someone else’s life in jeopardy as well as taking a risk with your own life and your future. Actions have consequences.

From the Office of Campus Ministries: “Consider being a student missionary during the 2017-2018 school year! Applications must be completed by March 1 and usually take 2 months to complete, so start today! Loan deferment is available to you during your year of service, and your year of service makes you eligible for an academic undergraduate scholarship upon your return. A variety of different types of positions are available all over the world! Stop by Campus Ministries or email sm@andrews.edu to get started today!”

Are you moving?

Have you turned in a 30-day notice?

Rent will be charged for a minimum of 30 days after we are informed that you are moving.

If your lease has not expired, you will have to find someone to take over your lease.

Please note the following on heaters:
1. This is radiated heat so air will not blow out, but you will feel warmth if you put your hand up to the register.
2. The temperature is regulated between 68 and 72 degrees.
3. The heater won’t come on unless it is below 60 degrees outside.

It has come to our attention that some are parking in the wrong parking spaces or parking so close to the lines (or even over the lines) that it makes it very hard for others to get their doors open or even park within their own space. Please be considerate of other people and be sure you are parked evenly and straight in your own space. If you have visitors, please have them park in the visitors’ parking spaces.

If you wish to use our dolly, please bring your ID or driver’s license. We will keep that in our office until the dolly is returned.
