Behavioral Consultant for Elkhart County Special Education Cooperative

March 4, 2013 & April 1, 2013
Presentations begin at 5:30 p.m. until 7:00 p.m.
Andrews University Campus | Bell Hall, Room 181

Lori Copsey has trained over 2,500 school psychologists, teachers, administrators, nurses, cafeteria and janitorial workers, over the past ten years. Her training is through the Crisis Prevention Institute. The cornerstone of CPI is the Nonviolent Crisis Intervention® program, which is considered the worldwide standard for crisis prevention and intervention training. With a core philosophy of providing for the Care, Welfare, Safety, and SecuritySM of everyone involved in a crisis situation, the program’s proven strategies provide the skills to safely and effectively respond to anxious, hostile, or violent behavior while balancing the responsibilities of care.

SB-CEUs available to those who register. Please register by calling 269.471-3473 or emailing ecp@andrews.edu.
