

DOCTOR OF MINISTRY NEWS & NOTES

Changing the People who Change the World...

May 30, 2007

DMin Family Ministry Concentration Instructors for Summer 2007

Alanzo Smith, DMin, EdD, is an international motivational speaker on Family Issues. He serves as Director of Family Ministries and Communication at the Greater New York Conference. He is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and Mental Health Counselor. Dr. Smith is the author of 4 books and several professional articles. In 2006, he was honored with the Centennial Award for excellent service in Family Evangelism and Church planting by the West Indies Union. In January, (2007) he received an award from the NAD Family Ministries Department for outstanding contribution to Family Ministry. This summer, Dr. Smith will be instructing RLED 755 Families In Society, July 22-27, 2007.

Rene' Drumm, PhD, is professor of social work and chairs the Social Work and Family Studies Department at Southern Adventist University. She has served in Adventist higher education for the past 15 years. Dr. Drumm holds a doctorate degree in Sociology with an emphasis in Family Studies from Texas Women's University and a Master's degree in Social Work from Michigan State University. Dr. Drumm has a great interest in social ministry and research and has published extensively in professional journals. Her current research interests include domestic violence, sexual identity, and program evaluation. This summer, Dr. Drumm will be instructing RLED 758 Internal Dynamics of Families, July 15-20, 2007.

Announcements

Addictions Ministry Conference will be July 12-15, 2007. Andrews University, Berrien Springs, MI 49104. Students, ministry leaders, health professionals, counselors, and educators are invited to this conference aimed to help you build your ministry skills as you deal with those struggling with addictions in your school, church, and/or community. To register call 800-732-7587, or online via <http://www.plusline.org/eventdetail.php?id=246>.

Recognition Weekend and Banquet is planned for July 20, 21, 2007, for all Family Ministry students. More details will be released soon. In the meantime, be sure to save the date!

A. Allan Martin, PhD, is the new DMin Family Ministry Concentration Coordinator. He, along with daughter Alexa and wife Deirdre, have recently moved to Andrews University where Allan now serves as the Associate Professor of Discipleship and Family Ministry. Dr. Martin welcomes your inquiries about the concentration and can be reached at 269-471-6375 or via email amartin@andrews.edu.

The DMin Family Ministry Concentration Flyer attached to this edition of News & Notes offers an exciting overview of the cohort that forms this summer. Please send and share this electronic document with any of your colleagues who have a passion to build healthy families.

Applications for the DMin Family Ministry Concentration will be accepted for one more week. Hurry NOW to submit yours! Email your request for an application package to dmin@andrews.edu, or find it online at www.doctorofministry.com.

"One well-ordered, well-disciplined family tells more in behalf of Christianity than all the sermons that can be preached." - Ellen G White

Family Ministry Concentration Coordinator:

*A Allan Martin, PhD, Associate Professor of Discipleship and Family Ministry
269.471.6375.office S227 • 269.471.6202.fax • amartin@andrews.edu*