New Concentration Coming in 2010 — Discipling and Spiritual Formation

The DMin Committee and Seminary faculty members are working on the creation of a new concentration in the DMin program. The first cohort for a concentration in Discipling and Spiritual Formation is expected to begin with intensives in February of 2010, under the leadership of Dr. Allan Walshe. For more information, contact walshe@andrews.edu; to request an application, go to the DMin website, www.doctorofministry.com, or email dmin@andrews.edu.

Euro-Asia Division Leadership Intensives in Progress

As shown in the photos above, members of the ESD cohort are currently gathered on the Zaoksky University campus for their third year's intensives. Dr. Skip Bell is the lead teacher for this year's module, Advanced Leadership Competencies.

An additional highlight of this year's convocation is a site visit by representatives of the program's accrediting body, Association of Theological Schools, Dr. William Miller and Dr. Charles Willard.

Assignment Submission Deadlines and Grades

Effective for courses and modules with intensives after November 2008, assignment submission deadlines for DMin modules and courses will be applied as follows:

Assignment due date:	possible A grade
Delay up to 60 days:	no more than A- grade
Delay up to 90 days:	no more than B+ grade
Delay up to 120 days:	no more than B grade
Delay up to 150 days:	no more than C grade
