DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

November, 2009

Our Alumni: Where Are They Now?

We appreciate our alumni keeping in touch with us! Dr. David Hartman, the new ministerial director of the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference, recently sent us this note:

"I read the DMin newsletters with great interest since my graduation from the Evangelism and Church Growth cohort in 2007. That was an extremely valuable process for me, one that has enriched and expanded my ministry greatly."

Dr. Hartman has produced several "Personal Styles of Evangelism" seminars that were presented at ministers' meetings, camp meetings, Southern Union, and North American Division events. He also produced a training kit on DVD that is available through AdventSource and Adventist Book Centers.

Plan NOW to join the Doctor of Ministry program in 2010! Cohorts are forming for concentrations in...

- Leadership (for NAD)
- Discipling and Spiritual Formation
- Family Ministry
- Youth and Young Adult Ministry

Don't wait! Call or email NOW to apply!

December 1 Application Deadline Looms for Discipleship & Spiritual Formation, Youth and Young Adult Ministry Cohorts

Cohorts for both concentrations will launch in February, with some events for the two cohorts combined. February in Orlando, Florida should provide pleasant weather, and the planned venue for the intensives will be convenient to food and lodging options. Some possible fringe benefits in negotiation are a tour of the Celebration Health facility, passes to the Celebration fitness center, and tickets to Disney to fill your free time.

The application deadline is December 1 and spaces are limited. Don't wait until the last minute if you are to make sure one of the places is yours! Call or email today: 1-888-717-6244, dmin@andrews.edu.
