DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

June, 2010

Adams Receives 2010 Award

We are pleased to announce Milton Adams as the 2010 recipient of the program's Excellence in DMin Research award. Dr. Adams completed his degree and graduated in May 2010, with a project titled "Developing, Planting and Multiplying an Adventist House Church Using Principles of Missiology in The Florida Conference of Seventh-day Adventists."

Milton lives in Sorrento, Florida, where he serves as director for the Simple Church Network, a house church network sponsored by the North American Division. You can learn more about this ministry at www.SimpleChurchAtHome.com.

Three New Cohorts in 2011!

Urban Ministry

Focused in Chicago, this newly designed concentration will bring together outstanding urban church pastors, municipal leaders, community organizers, and service leaders to address mission in the city. Andrews is linking with the Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education in Chicago; the first intensive is in March 2011.

Preaching

Dr. Hyveth Williams coordinates this new cohort, launching at the Andrews campus in June 2011.

Missional Church

Launching in April 2011 in Florida, this concentration prepares participants to lead a 21st century missionary movement for Western culture in a Seventh-day Adventist context.

The concentration is co-coordinated by the team of Dr. Michael F. Cauley, president of the Florida Conference, and Dr. Michael R. Cauley, church planter and pastor of the Come and See Church in Keller, Texas.
