DOCTOR OF MINISTRY

January, 2011

Lifelong Learning Opportunities

Participants in the Andrews Doctor of Ministry Program have access to an important lifelong learning opportunity. Once they have completed the four modules of a concentration they may attend the intensive in any future Doctor of Ministry module in any of our various concentrations free of any tuition charge. All that is required is notification of the Doctor of Ministry office and consent of the lead teacher.

We feel this is a contribution we can make as we partner together for the ongoing formation of leaders for God's church. We all sense the call to give our best in service. Take advantage of it if you are one of our graduates!

Save the Date

The next Doctor of Ministry conference is scheduled for September 19-20, 2011, to convene at the Andrews University campus. Concentration coordinators, lead teachers, project advisors, Seminary faculty members, and any interested persons are invited to participate. The annual conference affords the opportunity for new ideas, inspiration, and dialogue toward the goal of continual improvement in the Doctor of Ministry journey. This year, the discussions will focus on the integration of advanced professional education with field experience.

Where Are They Now?

Andrews Doctor of Ministry graduates can be found around the globe:

New Post-Graduate Certificate in Ministry

The new Post-Graduate Certificate in Ministry is designed to recognize the development of advanced competency for effective ministry experienced by persons who complete the four modules of an Andrews Doctor of Ministry concentration, but do not complete all program requirements. The certificate is issued for the specific concentration the participant has pursued, but only after the time limit for completing the Doctor of Ministry program has expired. The graduate credits earned in that specific concentration are preserved should the person wish to reapply at a later date to complete the Doctor of Ministry program.

Planning to start the DMin program in 2011? Wait no longer to apply!
Concentrations launching new cohorts in 2011:

Missional Church: A Biblical Response to Mission in Western Culture

Launching in April 2011 in Florida, this concentration prepares participants to lead a 21st century missionary movement for Western culture in a Seventh-day Adventist context.

The concentration is co-coordinated by the team of Dr. Michael F. Cauley, president of the Florida Conference, and Dr. Michael R. Cauley, pastor of the Oasis and Gracepoint churches in the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference. Applications may be submitted up to January 31, 2011.

Preaching

Dr. Hyveth Williams coordinates this concentration, designed to equip participants with resources for transformational prophetic preaching. Preaching the Word has the power to transform hearers. Participants will be challenged, inspired, and motivated to be great prophetic preachers of the 21st century. As graduates use the resources garnered from this concentration, congregational revival will be the anticipated reward. The first intensives will meet at the Andrews campus in July 2011. Application deadline is April 22, 2011.

Persons who are not United States citizens or permanent residents usually need student visas to attend intensives, and should apply at least 6-8 weeks earlier than the published application deadlines.
